

THE PRECINCT OFFICERS

Were Instructed by City Clerk Last Night

A meeting of precinct officers was held in the old common council chamber at city hall last night. City Clerk Flynn called the meeting for the purpose of instructing the precinct officers in the work at the coming primaries and state election. Only 21 of the 210 precinct officers attended the meeting. Of those who did attend 28 were democrats and 22 republicans.

One of the things discussed and explained by the city clerk was relative to enrollment. Previously if a man of one political faith went to the polling booth and found himself enrolled in another party, all he needed was to take oath that he was of the political party in which he wished to vote and a ballot was given him. Hereafter all such errors must be referred to the registrars of voters and they will, upon receiving an error, present him a certificate allowing him to change his ballot. The law concerning this change reads as follows: "No voter enrolled as a member of one political party shall be allowed to receive the ballot of any other political party upon a claim by him of erroneous enrollment, except upon a certificate of such error from the election commission or board of registrars, as the case may be, which certificate shall be presented to the presiding officer of the primary and preserved as part of the records of such primary."

The doing away with deputy wardens and inspectors, and the filling of vacancies is explained in the following: "If a clerk or warden is absent at the opening of the polls or subsequently on the day of election, or if the office is vacant, the senior inspector of the same political party as such warden or clerk, shall act as warden or clerk for that election, and the voters of the precinct, on nomination and by hand vote, shall fill the vacancy in the office of inspector."

U. S. OWES $1,700,450

But the Creditors Will Not Collect

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—The debt of the United States government on which interest has ceased, and the greater part of which probably never will be collected from Uncle Sam, aggregates $1,700,450, covering loans all the way from 1790 to 1907.

This fact was made public today by J. C. Nahler, registrar of the treasury, in his annual report for 1912.

There are a number of holders of these bonds who refuse to present them for redemption, although they know that the government long ago ceased to pay interest on them. Treasury officials are unable to explain their attitude except on the ground that they know their principal is safe in the federal treasury. It is estimated that nearly $1,000,000 of this debt has been lost or destroyed.

This includes the outstanding issues from 1790 down through the Civil war bonds. In the early days of the republic, loans were called "stock" in the government. There is now outstanding $27,370 of the "2 per cent. stock of 1790," $13,922 of the "5 per cent. stock of 1790," $12,952 of the "3 per cent. stock of 1790." Several hundred thousand dollars of the Civil war loans are outstanding. The larger amount outstanding is $500,000 of the called funded loan of 1907.

TWO WOMEN MAY DIE

Trolley Car Was in Collision With Surrey

STONINGTON, Conn., Sept. 20.—Four persons were injured, two of them very seriously, if not fatally, when a trolley express freight car on the Norwich & Westerly line struck the surrey in which the four were driving yesterday afternoon as it was crossing the tracks at Avery's Crossing in North Stonington.

The injured are: David Smith, Oakland, Cal., injured about the head; Mrs. David Smith, Oakland, Cal., ribs broken and back injured; Miss Kate Cogg, St. Louis, Mo., broken arm and internal injuries; Miss Emily A. Cogg, Garden, internal injuries.

Mrs. Smith and Miss Emily A. Cogg are believed to be the most seriously hurt. The injured were removed to the home of Mrs. I. W. Briggs, nearby. The surrey had almost cleared the tracks when the car struck it.

There is a sharp curve at the crossing which makes it impossible to see down the track for any distance.

The Smiths have a summer cottage at West Westerly, where they spend a good part of the year.

The Patent Medicine In England

A committee of the house of commons has, for some time past, been making a serious study in London for the purpose of investigating the law regarding the sale and advertisement of patent medicines in the United Kingdom.

In the course of the investigation, it has been developed that the sale of such medicines is equivalent to one package per year for every man, woman and child in the country; that as estimated by one witness, the amount of money spent on proprietary medicines in Great Britain alone in one year amounted to $123,662,500 or sufficient to maintain 46,600 hospitals or 46,600 asylums; and that, notwithstanding the enormous amount expended, the collector to the customs and excise department stated, in answer to question from the chairman of the committee, that there was nothing, in his opinion, in the law as it now stood to prevent any person making up any sort of mixture, containing anything except active poison, from advertising it as a cure for any disease, and selling it to the public on payment of the stamp duty. He added that probably a police could prevent it, if absolutely forced were established, but that it would be exceedingly doubtful, in his opinion, to obtain evidence that would cause a successful prosecution.

NAT GOODWIN

The Well Known Actor Has Lost the Use of His Legs and is Almost Certain He Will Never Act Again

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—It is almost certain that Nat C. Goodwin will never again appear on the stage. A letter from the actor, dated Sept. 18, says that he is now paralyzed in the legs.

Since the accident the condition of the actor's mind has not been good, and his friends fear a breaking up of his mental powers. He is just able to draw himself up by his arms in bed.

to his friend, John Ernest Warren, secretary of the American Dramatists' association, from California says the actor is now paralyzed in the legs.

The letter explains that the stories of Goodwin's mishap already published, have been misleading. Goodwin is suffering from a fracture of the pelvis, which was not discovered for some time after he was thrown out of the boat.

Since the accident the condition of the actor's mind has not been good, and his friends fear a breaking up of his mental powers. He is just able to draw himself up by his arms in bed.

First Baptist Church

The annual social and reunion of the Sunday school teachers and officers of the First Baptist church was held last evening at the church and the number of those who attended was about 70. A supper was served and after this the gathering listened to several interesting addresses.

The chief speaker being Rev. G. C. Johnson of Boston. He dwelt upon the Sunday school work in which he has had considerable experience. Rev. Mr. Cummings also spoke. Arrangements for the supper were in the hands of a committee of the Ladies' Benevolent society.

6200 MINE WORKERS ARE IDLE TWO ALLEGED BURGLARS

As a Result of Strike at Bingham, Utah—Greeks and Cretans Entrenched

BINGHAM, Utah, Sept. 20.—Sixty-two hundred men now compose the army of mine workers made idle by the strike in the mines here Wednesday and present indications are that this number will be increased unless a settlement of difficulties is brought about within the next few days. The situation today was practically unchanged, and there appears to be little prospect of an agreement between miners and operators soon. Forty-five hundred of the idle men are strikers. The remaining 1700 were forced to leave their work when the concentrating mills at Garfield had to close down last night for lack of ore.

The Greeks and Cretans who, until yesterday, were fortified in trenches overlooking the mines, have remained true to their promise to Gov. Spry to give up the stronghold, but have not relaxed their vigilance on the mines. Pickets patrolled the roads leading to the mines last night and early today several shots were exchanged with deputy sheriffs who attempted to cross the highways leading into the hills.

Many of the American miners and machinists who were in most part opposed to the strike have left the camp and are taking no part in the disturbance.

Were Arrested After a Long Chase

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Following a 20 minute chase over fences and rear yards in the vicinity of West 20th street, two men were arrested early today charged with burglary. Five other men escaped. The party of alleged burglars was surprised while looting the storeroom of Julius Cohen & Co., manufacturers of cloaks and suits. The police found $18,000 worth of stuff packed up outside the building while inside they found seven dark lanterns, two sticks of dynamite and a fine collection of burglar tools.

MILITARY MAN SHOT

By Picket Mistaking Him for Intruder

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Sept. 20.—Just before midnight members of Company M of the state militia, fired upon several men attempting to set fire to a pile of the Carbon Co. at South Charleston. One man was fatally injured and probably others were injured. At Cherokee, near Esdala, Charles Campbell, a militiaman, on picket duty was mistaken for an intruder by another sentry. Each opened fire on the other, Campbell was shot in the arm and breast. It has not been learned whether his injuries are likely to prove fatal.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. John Shannon and Miss Elizabeth A. Conway were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the rectory of the Church of the Immaculate Conception by Rev. Fr. Sullivan, O. M. I. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Annie Conway, and the best man was Mr. Michael Hyde. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's sister. Mr. and Mrs. Shannon left on the 8.45 train for an extended wedding trip and upon their return will reside on School street and will be at home to friends after Nov. 1. They received many beautiful wedding gifts.

ENJOYABLE TIME

Whist Party and Reception Held at Home of Miss Silk in North Tewksbury Last Evening

A number of friends were entertained last evening at the home of Miss Harlette Silk in North Tewksbury, when a whist party and reception were held. About 20 guests were present and all assisted in making the affair a pleasant one. The whist games were very close and interesting and many good scores were made. Later other games were played and a dainty repast served. A musical program of unusual excellence was carried out and at the conclusion of the enjoyable affair, all thanked Miss Silk for the enjoyable time provided.

Priests' Retreat

The Oblate Fathers of St. Joseph's parish will make their annual tour of the parish beginning Sept. 30, at which time they will also take the census of the parish. This week the fathers are following their annual retreat which is being preached by Rev. Fr. Jodoin, O. M. I. of Montreal, Que. Rev. Henri Watelle, O. M. I., pastor of the parish, received word this week that the statue of Our Lady of Purgatory which was ordered some time ago is on its way and will be here soon. This statue will be installed on the calvary which is being constructed at the French-American orphanage in Pawtucket street, in the rear of the grove.

Mother's arch, Associate, tonight.

WOODWORKERS STRIKE

Not Settled Yet, But Many Have Left Town

While no general settlement between the employe and employer was ever reached in the strike of the cabinet makers and millmen which was declared in this city on the fifth of July, about all the strikers are now working. Many of them went to other cities, while some went back to the places they left. One of the mill owners compromised with his men and practically all returned to their benches. In some instances though the men are now working for the same pay as they received before making their demands for better hours and wages.

Of those who left Lowell, several went to Lynn, others to Boston and more to Worcester. One labor man in conversation with the writer said that while it may be said that the strike is off, the fact that the men were not granted an increase, has been a blow to this city.

He said that the more skillful men who came out sought employment in other cities, and at least six are now in charge of departments in other cities. This has decreased the working efficiency in our city and has caused us to lose some of our best men.

Of those who returned, the majority are those who learned to operate but one kind of a machine, and went back because they were unable to find em-

ALL CHECKS STAMPED

New Equipment Installed at the Depot

A new rubber stamping equipment has been installed at the baggage office at the Boston and Maine depot, to be used in making out checks. While all the checks come to the station partially printed they embrace blank lines, which are filled in there.

The stamping is in charge of Depot Master Dean, while the work is done by Baggage Master Frank Ross. All but seven checks are stamped at the local station and the work is a very tedious and important job. With the new equipment, better time can be made, as it is better supplied and of more durable material than the older one.

The general impression at the depot is that when the new time table is issued it will include a great many changes, especially on the western division. The new schedule will be announced about the last of this month, it is expected, and all are anxiously awaiting its arrival.

All the trains were on time today, and the travelling as well as the baggage was very heavy.

Chambers of Commerce

BOSTON, Sept. 20.—Completing a journey of observation of cities to attend the fifth international conference of chambers of commerce, to be held in Boston, September 21-25, W. J. Little arrived here today from Cape Town, South Africa. Only a small number of the more than 500 foreign delegates who will attend the convention, have reached this city. Several hundred, however, are expected to be here on Monday. Those who have arrived include: Reginald Mahadeo of Kingston, Jamaica; W. J. Little of Cape Town, South Africa; S. B. Adamson of Birkenhead, England; Dr. Sir Nath Kapoor of Karachi, India; and Robert C. Arbib of Tripoli.

Officers Elected

The members of the N. Tens club held an important meeting at the home of Miss E. Bourgeois and transacted considerable business. The election of officers took place with the following result: Miss A. Hession, president; Miss A. Courchaine, secretary; Miss L. Bourgeois, treasurer. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served.

ECONOMY IN BUYING SOAPS

May Be Effected in Two Ways

First—By judging a good soap for its actual value without necessarily paying for the name or appearance.

By buying several months' stock, and securing the soap before using.

This is an opportunity for the thrifty housekeeper to buy good soaps in goodly quantities economically.

MADEIRA, Cucumber or Lettuce, a high-grade pure toilet soap, delightfully perfumed. Some imported soaps retailed at 18c per cake are no better. Packed 3 cakes in box.

Per Box 19c Dozen 55c
LIQUOZONE SOAP, sold in various stores at 7c to 15c per cake.

The Riker-Jaynes business, its service, its methods and sales are conducted always with a thought to the future.

Every article advertised has been selected, not for its sensational value alone, but because of its reliability also.

We depend upon every sale, whether small or large, to make and hold customers for the Riker-Jaynes drug stores.

No department in our store is conducted independent of our entire business. Whether you buy a cake of soap, a hot water bottle or a box of candy we expect it to be in value and quality of such a grade as to increase your confidence in us, to cause you to buy your medicines and entrust your prescriptions with us.

Whether you pay 5c or $5.00 for an article you have a right to expect complete satisfaction, and we make it a point to have you satisfied.

REMEDIES

Not to be found elsewhere as well as the most common, at prices always lowest, always fresh, sold by exceptionally intelligent clerks, that is what you can expect to find in a Riker-Jaynes Drug Store. Originators of cut prices on drug store goods, we have never failed to maintain the lead.

A Remarkable

NEW CANDY

Billie Burke Chocolates
50c POUND

Made by Guth, the creator of the famous "Chocolates au Guth."

What Billie Burke says:

"I have never tasted such splendid chocolates. I am proud to have them bear my name and I hope you will enjoy them as much as I do."

BILLIE BURKE

You will find "Billie Burke" the most delicious chocolate candies you have ever tasted. A special blend of chocolate is used for them and the fillings are entirely original. The New Candy. The Candy of Novelty!

We expect to sell a half a million boxes of "Billie Burke" chocolates the first year, that is the only reason we can afford to offer them at so small a price.

50c the Pound

Obtained only in the Riker-Jaynes Drug Store.

CONSTIPATED, BILIOUS, HEADACHY, LIVER TORPID?—CASCARETS SURE

Turn the bowels out—the headache, biliousness, constipation, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out tonight with Cascarets.
Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets sweeten and regulate your stomach; remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and that misery-making gas; take the excess bile from your liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter and constipation poison from the bowels. Then you will feel great.
A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your head clear, stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular and make you feel bully and cheerful for months. Don't forget the children.

10 Cents. Never gripe or sicken.

SUPERINTENDENT DYER

Ranks Teacher Next to the Mother

BOSTON, Sept. 20.—Elementary teachers were idealized in a plane next to that of motherhood by Dr. Franklin B. Dyer in his address before the meeting of the elementary teachers of Boston at the English High School auditorium yesterday afternoon. There was a large attendance of kindergarten and primary teachers who also heard praise for their work from Eugene Elfer, the newly-appointed director of instruction at the Art Museum, and Theodore M. Dillaway, who called for co-operation in their efforts to interest children in art.

Dr. Dyer at once won the teachers by his pleasing informality and the keen wit of his introductory remarks which evoked much applause. Then he told of a visit to the public library last Sunday during which he viewed the glorious portrayal of many artists' conceptions of mother and child.

"Oh that a master hand would idealize the ideal teacher and the child," exclaimed Dr. Dyer. "That he would portray the mother with her gentle ways guiding the wandering footsteps, her sure and buoyant hand inspiring courage for the next step; her radiant spirit illuminating the child's pathway, and her hopeful and expectant eye inspiring the child with worthy aspirations. My conception of her could be idealized as a worthy comparison with those illustrious portrayals of the mother and child."

Dr. Dyer's address was almost entirely confined to the high regard in which he held the elementary teacher's vocation as he outlined its value to the child in mature years.

Colored supplements of the Sunday newspaper were scored by Mr. Dillaway, who declared that if newspapers would only pick out themes that inspire respect for old age and honesty instead of the contrary, children might receive benefits from them. The color scheme of the Sunday supplements were pronounced "stirring" from the viewpoint of art, and he called for black and white drawings of more elevating subjects that would educate and uplift the child.

Senator Bourne a Candidate

SALEM, Ore., Sept. 20.—The nomination by petition of United States Senator Jonathan Bourne, Jr., for the United States senatorial candidacy, has been received by Secretary of State Olcott. Senator Bourne was defeated in the republican primary last spring by Den Selling of Portland. He was defeated for the nomination in the progressive party convention this week by A. E. Clark of Portland. Mr. Bourne made no active canvass for renomination by either party.

NEW TELEPHONE SWITCHBOARD

To be Installed in Appleton St. Building—Costs as Much as the Building

Early in the year 1912 the local division of the New England Telephone & Telegraph company will move into their new quarters on Appleton street and when this time arrives, Lowell may well boast that she possesses if not the best, at least one of the best telephone exchanges in New England. The new building itself is now practically completed and it would be well to say a word regarding its general structure before describing in detail the arrangements of the interior. It is a magnificently constructed, absolutely fireproof edifice, the substantial representation of the latest architectural ideas and novelties. At present its height is three stories, and yet from foundation to roof, the remarkable solidity of its underpinning is easily capable of supporting a much greater burden than it is at present called to uphold. For naturally with the growth of business which will undoubtedly occur, even these new and extensive quarters will of necessity become cramped and it is the intention and lunch, and a reading room and library will also be placed at their disposal. The plant offices, chief of outside construction, and the men clerks will have offices on the second floor.

A dumb waiter will bring supplies to the cooking department from the storeroom in the basement. The most important feature of the whole plant has a place on the second story namely the switchboard, or brain of the system. It alone cost fully as much and required more skilled and delicate work than the building itself. The wiring is done by a system of colors and is most complicated. The switchboard will be finished early in January.

The top floor includes lavatories, toilet room, and practically a class room and miniature exchange for the training of operators. There is also a pure room and rest aside for study. The system of ventilating the whole structure has its most important apparatus on the roof and this is operated by means of large fans which drive the pure air to all parts of the plant.

The telephone and telegraph are perhaps the most complicated as well as the most important factors in our every day life and it is these that make the whole world as one individual. The New England company has everything that is modern and conducive to uninterrupted service for its patrons and Lowell will point to her division of this great organization with pride when the new quarters are completed and occupied.

WIDOW TO WED

Says She Will Take a Husband in Order to Spite Her Daughter—New York Woman Arrested

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Mary Carney, 15 years old, of No. 2 Vineyard avenue, Yonkers, called a policeman Wednesday and had her mother Mrs. Hannah Carney, taken to the lockup for threatening to get married "just for spite."

At police headquarters Mary told Lieut. Cahill that Mrs. Carney had put a rope around her neck and was threatening to commit suicide. If her matrimonial plans were criticised, Mrs. Carney replied: "She hasn't told you all. She's afraid I am going to bring a stepfather into the house. Now I'll marry John Mahoney, not for love, but for spite. Then she'll be sorry."

The lieutenant showed them both out, with advice to go to court if they could not settle their difficulties between themselves.

THE BREWERS

To Elect Officers at Session of the Fifty-second Annual Convention in Boston Today

BOSTON, Sept. 20.—The election of officers by the principal business today before the delegates attending the closing session of the fifty-second annual convention of the United States Brewers' association. Reports of various committees were presented.

A million dollars a year awaits the farmers of every grain growing county in the United States in return for more scientific and business like management of the farms, in the opinion of the crop improvement committee of the association. The committee in its report said that brewers are facing famine prices for raw material because of the increasing demand for molasses, barley and the decreased production because of soil exhaustion and the withdrawal of land from cultivation. The committee reported that it had established development bureaus for the benefit of the farmers in nearly 300 counties.

The violence committee made its annual report on legislation, judicial decisions and political developments of interest to the delegates.

COL. ROOSEVELT

To Spend a Day and a Half in William J. Bryan's Home State, Nebraska

HOLDREDGE, Neb., Sept. 20.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt came in William J. Bryan's home state today for a campaign of a day and a half. He reached Holdredge, his first stop, after an all night ride from Denver and remained here two hours. He was scheduled to stop at Hastings, Kearney, Crete and Lincoln on his way to Omaha, where he is to remain all night.

THE REBELS WERE DEFEATED

They Were Surprised While Eating at the Ranch—Two Americans Liberated

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Sept. 20.—Despatches regarding the defeat of the rebels at the San Joaquin ranch near Agua Prieta yesterday by federal troops under Col. Obregon show that Obregon's force numbering 152 men, mostly Yaqui Indians, surprised the rebels as they were eating at the telephoned the news to Douglas. At nightfall the federals were still pursuing the rebels into the hills.

M. L. Pollard, one of the Americans, reported there were 500 in the band and that Antonio Rojas and Inez Salazar, rebel leaders, were with them. Pollard and three companions were taking horses from Douglas to the El Tigre mines when they were taken prisoners. Obregon's position is believed to be precarious despite his temporary victory unless the 400 federals under Colonels Munoz and Alvarado, somewhere in the vicinity, come to his aid.

MORE RALLIES HELD

By the Rival Candidates Last Night For the Democratic Congressional Nomination

A rousing rally in the interest of Humphrey O'Sullivan's candidacy for congress was held in the town hall at Woburn last night. There were about 250 men present and the meeting was one of the most enthusiastic of the campaign. Thomas Golden, president of the democratic city committee of Woburn, presided and among those seated on the platform was Mayor Murray of Woburn. Former Mayor Reed of Woburn and a number of city officials were also present. The speakers, beside Mr. O'Sullivan, were Hon. James B. Casey and Daniel J. Donahue.

Another O'Sullivan rally was held in Lyceum hall, Reading, Mr. O'Sullivan spoke at that meeting, too, and the other speakers were J. Joseph O'Connor and James F. Miskella.

Carmichael Meeting
A meeting in the interest of Colonel James H. Carmichael's candidacy for congress was held last evening at the corner of Willie street and Broadway. Mr. Carmichael was the only speaker and he was given a rousing reception when introduced.

NINETY-SEVEN PERSONS KILLED

In This State as Result of Auto Accidents Since January 1st, 1912

There have been 97 deaths in Massachusetts as the result of automobile accidents since Jan. 1, 1912, as against 63 for the corresponding months of last year.

The statement relative to the number of automobile deaths, as they are termed, was made today by Thomas A. Dolan of the state highway commission. Mr. Dolan investigates automobile deaths and he has just completed his investigation of the accident in Woburn, which was responsible for the death of Mr. Carney of Boston. The accident happened on the forenoon of Sept. 1. Mr. Carney was removed to St. John's hospital, where he died as the result of his injuries.

Mr. Dolan says there is nothing for publication as to the result of his investigation. There was only one car concerned and Carney was at the wheel when the car struck the pole, at least it is supposed that while he was not driving the machine prior to the accident he grasped the wheel at the last moment, but not in time to prevent the accident.

His License Revoked
The license of Ingham Mercer, who was driving James Horsfall's car when it struck and killed a little boy in Woburn, has been revoked by the highway commission. In discussing this matter today, Mr. Dolan said that Mercer was operating for hire under an operator's license and that it is strictly against the law. In order to operate for hire it is necessary to have a chauffeur's license and Mercer was too young to get a chauffeur's license.

Chauffeurs' Examination Today
Every Friday representatives of the state highway commission come to this city and examine applicants for chauffeur's licenses. The examinations are held at city hall and the examiner today was Chauncey G. Hubbard of Waltham. At this season of the year there are very few applicants as compared with the early summer and the class today was a small one.

POSTAL CLERK INDICTED

He is Held on Embezzlement Charge

BOSTON, Sept. 20.—Frank H. Stone, chief clerk at the Arlington Heights postoffice, has been indicted by the federal grand jury for alleged embezzlement and larceny of funds taken when the office was robbed Sept. 2.

Twenty other persons, including five Chinese alleged to be implicated in the opium traffic, were also indicted, making a total of 21 persons who were publicly indicted and nine who were secretly indicted.

The failure of the grand jury to report any public indictment in the case of Francis Vernon Willey, who was arrested on a charge of conspiring with Arthur Neville to bring English immigrants into this country to work at the South Barre woolen mills in violation of the contract labor laws, caused considerable comment.

Among those publicly indicted were John H. Zwicker and James E. Fox of Yarmouth, N. S., and William Shade of Boston, stewards on board the steamship Prince George, who are charged with assisting George B. Tinkham, a customs inspector, while he was endeavoring to enforce customs regulations when the steamer reached Long wharf from Yarmouth Aug. 31.

Thomas Keenan, chief of the Leyland liner Canadian, was indicted on a charge of fraudulently importing an English overcoat for a prominent shoe man of Haverhill.

Harry A. Wright, head of a local detective agency, also was indicted on the charge of harboring George Baum, a deserter from the marine corps.

Max and Reuben Cohen, farmers at Lakeville, were indicted for operating an alleged illicit brandy still on their farm.

In connection with the recent opium raids of the customs authorities in Boston and New Bedford, Henry White and Kim Wing, Quong Sing and Wong Yuen of New Bedford were indicted on a charge of manufacturing opium illegally, and Charlie Wong and Chin Chung of Boston were indicted on a charge of concealing and selling opium.

MAJOR F. A. M'NEELEY
Lost His Life by Gas Poisoning

BOSTON, Sept. 20.—Major Frank A. McNeely, a prominent member of the National Guard, was found dead in a room in the Thorndike house at 67 Green street, West End, yesterday, under circumstances which strongly indicate suicide. Death was caused by gas poisoning.

A membership card issued by the Elks' lodge at Albany made identification possible. Relatives of the dead man had been notified and will come to this city to claim the body. An autopsy will be performed this morning in an effort to positively determine whether death was accidental.

McNeely took the room at 1 a. m. It was nine hours later when the escaping gas attracted the attention of the hotel employees.

Major McNeely was born in Akron 35 years ago and had been attached to the adjutant-general's office at Albany for 15 years. He was also secretary of the state armory board. He was single.

MORGAN & CO

Are Planning to Build Office in Wall Street That Will Cost About $5,000,000

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—J. P. Morgan & Co. are planning to tear down the old-time Drexel building at Wall and Broad streets, which has been the home of the Morgan firm for many years, and erect a new structure on the site and that of the adjoining building, which has just been purchased by J. P. Morgan, a partner of Mr. Morgan, said yesterday that he could not say when the new building would be erected.

That the new Morgan building is to be a banking house and not a skyscraper, came as a great surprise to financial and real estate circles.

Ever since J. P. Morgan & Co. early this year, bought out the interest of the Drexel estate in the corner property, it has been taken for granted that some building plan was on foot, but it was also supposed that the improvement of what many regard as the most valuable corner in the city would be in the form of another tall building.

The properties included in the new building site are assessed at $4,320,000, of which $2,760,000 represents land value. Thus it is apparent that with a moderate expenditure for a new building on this site the Morgan banking house will represent an investment of at least $5,000,000.

For Foreign Missions
WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—Nearly one-third of a million dollars for foreign missions was received into the treasury of the general conference of Seventh Day Adventists during the past eight months, according to a report to the annual conference meeting here. Of this amount more than $200,000 was donated in free will offerings through what is known as the "Fifteen cents a week fund" set aside exclusively for missionary work in countries other than the United States and Canada.

Extensive plans are being outlined by the council for the advancement of the publishing feature of the denomination throughout the world.

UNCLE SAM'S CURRENCY

Much of it is Never Redeemed by Gov't

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—There are millions of dollars of currency outstanding, lost, destroyed or being preserved as souvenirs, which the federal government never will be called to redeem, according to a compilation of figures by the register of the treasury.

This indicates that the government makes a big profit on its issues of paper money.

At the present time $15,252,063 is outstanding of the issue of fractional currency notes during the Civil war, familiar

GOVERNOR WILSON IN OHIO

He Invades President Taft's Home State and Will Make a Number of Speeches

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 20.—Invading President Taft's home state, Gov. Wilson today was scheduled to open the Ohio democratic campaign with five speeches assisted by Congressmen James Cox, candidate for governor, and Senator Gore of Oklahoma.

Every minute of Gov. Wilson's stay in Columbus, from the time he arrived from Detroit at 11:30 until his departure tomorrow was to be occupied in making speeches, conferring with leaders, organizing workers and giving a reception to the public.

At 1 o'clock Gov. Wilson and Mr. Cox were to address an organization meeting at Memorial hall and at 2 o'clock were to address an additional meeting in a local theatre, under the auspices of State School Commissioner Miller.

At 3:15 o'clock business men and commercial salesmen expected to hear the speakers at the city hall and at 4 o'clock a public reception was to be held at a hotel for the candidates.

Gov. Wilson and Senator Gore and Congressman Cox were to be entertained at dinner at 5 o'clock and at 6:30 o'clock were to head a large parade of voters who will march through the principal streets of the city to Memorial hall, where the big meeting of the opening is to be held at 7:30.

Gov. Wilson will remain in Columbus until tomorrow morning when he will attend a breakfast which State Chairman Finley will give to the democratic editors of the state.

Besides the hundreds of enthusiasts who poured into the city this morning on special trains and traction cars, practically every member of county, state, district and precinct committees is expected to attend.

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, R. B. Brown, the candidate for governor and practically all of the candidates on the state ticket will start the republican campaign machinery going with oratorical grandeur tomorrow while the progressives will be following a like course at Akron and Cleveland. Gov. Hiram Johnson of California and Arthur L. Garfield, candidate for governor, will be the principal speakers when the progressives open their campaign tomorrow at Akron.

GAVE SHORT WEIGHT

Man Was Ordered to Pay a Fine of $20

BOSTON, Sept. 20.—Judge Ratigan imposed a fine of $20 upon Charles de Lara, a commission merchant, in the superior criminal court, yesterday, after De Lara had been found guilty of giving short weight in selling a barrel of potatoes. The case is the first to reach the superior court of several which the deputies in the department of seals of weights and measures are prosecuting, and it came as a test case before a jury.

De Lara was fined $20 in the lower court after being adjudged guilty by Judge Burke, and he appealed. Julius Meyer prosecuted the case for the weights and measures department. He testified to purchasing a "barrel" of white potatoes from De Lara and finding after the purchase that the barrel weighed only 147 pounds, whereas the statutes say a barrel of white potatoes shall weigh 165 pounds.

When De Lara was called for sentence Judge Ratigan said that he was inclined to impose the heaviest sentence prescribed by law upon dealers who gave short weight, but as the defendant agreed not to appeal imposed only the nominal sentence visited by the lower courts.

ATTACKED BY ELEPHANT

Mail Coach Wrecked and Driver Killed

CALCUTTA, India, Sept. 20.—An attack by a wild elephant on the Mullatidion-Vilankulam mail coach, in the northern province of Ceylon, is reported in advices from Colombo. Appearing unexpectedly from the jungle, the elephant killed the driver with one blow of its trunk and then proceeded to smash the coach against a telegraph pole.

The passengers, who were thrown out of the vehicle, hid themselves in a nearby culvert from which the enraged beast tried in vain to dislodge them. When the animal disappeared into the thicket the frightened travelers climbed a tree where they remained throughout the night.

Beats Train With Auto
WINSTED, Conn., Sept. 20.—Stage Agent Foster at Litchfield discovered after the 8:15 passenger train left for the Shepaug division yesterday that a woman on the train had left an envelope containing two tickets for Boston, baggage checks, $40 in cash and two drafts in the station.

George J. Snitzer sped in his automobile after the train, overtaking and passing it. When the train steamed into Litchfield he boarded it and gave the articles to the surprised owner.

TWKSBUURY COMPLAINS

Because Train Service Was Curtailed

The railroad commissioners gave a hearing yesterday morning on a complaint from Twksbury against the action of the Boston & Maine railroad in cutting out one train each day between Lawrence and Boston, the result of the discontinuance of the trains being that persons using the Twksbury Centre station on the Southern Division have only one train a day each way.

The board suggested to the company that at least one of the trains operating in each direction between Boston and the Almont station in Twksbury be routed through the Twksbury Centre station, and an effort will be made to so adjust the time-table as to make this possible.

A PROBATION SENTENCE

Man Must Report Every Sunday Morning

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Every Sunday morning for seven years to come Emman Dunker must make a pilgrimage to the police court and report to a probation officer. There had not been even a ripple of discord in the Dunker home in Green Point for the 10 years the couple had lived together until last Sunday when Dunker, a red-headed "trough" and discharged revolver at his surprised spouse. Then she had him arrested. The old man was so repentant when arraigned that the judge decided on the period of probation. Dunker was bewildered at the long term.

"For I am already an old man and I shall die before the time is up, judge," he mildly remonstrated.

"Well, if you do you will not be punished for breaking your parole," the judge assured him.

MADE A CONTRACT

Couple Want Greatest Personal Liberty and Agree to Share All Expenses and Earn Separate Livelihood
LOS ANGELES, Sept. 20.—In conformity to her part of a prenuptial contract that caused comment from all sections of the country, Mrs. Carleton Washburne, until a few days ago Miss Beluse Chandler, obtained a position with the firm by which her husband is employed. The company publishes a magazine and Mrs. Washburne will do the illustrating for it.

A part of the prenuptial contract which as a whole provided for the greatest personal liberty on the part of husband and wife, specified that each should earn an individual livelihood and should share the expenses of maintaining a home and of caring for children, should any result from the marriage.

"The accounts of my mother being prearranged for my wedding are merely trash," said Mrs. Washburne, "I have received several telegrams of congratulation and commendation from many mothers since my marriage."

THE ASTOR BABY

BERNARDSVILLE, N. J., Sept. 20.—Mrs. John Jacob Astor and her millionaire baby are here for a week's outing. Both are in the best of health. It is declared.

The baby had his last photograph taken before leaving New York for this place. Only four copies of the picture will be printed, one for his grandparents, one for his mother, one for Vincent Astor and one for the photographer. This infant was a month old on September 1.

WORLD'S SERIES

Is To Begin On Monday, October 7, as Agreed Upon By the National Commission

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—The world's series baseball games are to begin on Monday, October 7. This date is said to have been tentatively agreed upon by the National commission, which meets here next Wednesday to draft the plans for the games. The date for the opening of the series is desired as the commission desires to take advantage of good weather.

It is learned that the commission has practically decided to play two consecutive days in one city. The club owners upon the assumption that the New York Nationals and the Boston Americans shall have the opening games.

Grand Circuit Meet

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 20.—Two full days behind the schedule because of rain and mud, prospects today were that some of the week's grand circuit races would have to be declared off. The meeting, originally intended to close today, has been extended to include Saturday.

Yesterday's downpour left the track in such condition that it was not certain the horses could be called out at 12:30, the time set for racing to begin.

THE FEAST OF YUM KIPPUR

Is Being Observed Today by
All the Local Hebrew
Societies

The 500 or more Jewish families in this city will gather in the various synagogues at about five o'clock this afternoon to open the ceremonies in observance of the feast of the Yum Kippur.

Rabbi Wolfson, who is at the head of all the synagogues in Lowell will begin the services in the Howard street place of worship. This feast will end at sundown tomorrow evening. During the whole time, commencing at 5 o'clock tonight the strictest fasting is compulsory and no food or drink may pass the lips of these people, nor are they allowed to smoke or indulge in any other enjoyment or pleasure. The Yum Kippur means in our language the day of repentance and forgiveness and it is the belief of the Jews that during this period, all the sins which they have committed in the year past will be forgiven, provided, of course, they are truly repentant.

The synagogues on McIntyre and Howard streets will be crowded at sunset today with men, women and children seeking forgiveness for their offenses. The service opens with public prayer led by men chosen from the different societies and the ancient Hebrew chants will be sung and sermons preached by leaders. Many of the people will remain in the edifices throughout the whole night and all day tomorrow, in constant prayer and worship. This is one of the most widely observed feasts in the Jewish calendar and these services are held on this day universally over

Hood Farm Won Many Prizes
for Cattle and Pigs This Year

MR. DODGE EXHIBITING A PRIZE JERSEY

The prizes won by Hood farm thus far this season for cattle and pigs are numerous. At four fairs, the New York state fair, Michigan state fair, Rockingham fair and Worcester fair, cattle from Hood farm won 11 first prizes, 19 second, 15 third, 5 fourth, 11 championships, 7 grand championships, gold and silver medals and silver cups. At the Michigan state fair Hood farm cattle took 13 first, 4 second, 2 third, 3 fourth, two championships and both grand championships. At the New York state fair the Lowell cattle won six first, five second, two third, one fourth and two championships. At the New York state fair Hood farm pigs won 3 first, 9 second and three prizes and 2 championships. The prize winning cattle and pigs were exhibited by J. E. Dodge, superintendent of Hood farm, and next week he will exhibit them at the Missouri state fair.

the whole earth wherever Hebrews dwell. At 7:30 this evening, those who so desire may retire to their homes and remain there in rest until 5 o'clock tomorrow morning when all will once more assemble at the synagogues to remain there the whole day.

Rabbi Wolfson to Preach
Tonight Rabbi Wolfson will preach at the Howard Street synagogue and will dwell on the necessity of true repentance in order to obtain forgiveness, reviewing the year and looking toward the future. Tomorrow he will speak in one of the other societies and will lead the public prayer. During this time these people also pray for spiritual and worldly benefits, such as health, prosperity and happiness. Although the blowing of the Shofar is not among the requirements of the services of this feast, nevertheless tomorrow evening at the closing it will be sounded once to make the people aware of the fact that the holy period is over and that they may now partake of food and drink.

Feast of Tabernacles
On next Wednesday the Jews about the city will begin the celebration of the Feast of the Tabernacles, which is a remembrance of the days when the Jewish people started on their journey from Egypt to Palestine, spending the night in tents. Today those of the Hebrew faith who can afford to do so are required to build roofless structures and spend eight days dwelling in these or at least taking their meals in them. The places of business about Lowell will be closed tonight and all day tomorrow and also on Thursday and Friday and Saturday of next week, when the feast of the tabernacles will be observed. This feast is also an important one as it is in reality a sort of thanksgiving to God for his goodness to them.

Knox Honored
TOKIO, Sept. 20.—Philander C. Knox, who attended the funeral of the late Emperor Meiji, is the special ambassador of the United States was present at a dinner tendered in his honor tonight by Baron Ei-ichi Shibusawa, a prominent Japanese economist. Earlier in the day the secretary attended a luncheon given by the foreign minister, Viscount Yasuya Uchida, who was formerly ambassador at Washington.

Tomorrow morning Mr. Knox will take breakfast with the premier, Marquis Saionji and the secretary immediately afterward will leave Tokio for Yokohama. Arriving there the American party will be given a dinner by the members of the American colony. Mr. Knox and his suite are scheduled to sail from Yokohama for the United States at noon of the same day.

Arguments Postponed
LAWRENCE, Sept. 20.—Arguments which were to be presented in superior criminal court here today before Judge Quinn on the motion for a bill of particulars filed by counsel for Joseph J. Egan and Arthur Giovanniotti, leaders of the local textile strike, who are awaiting trial on a charge of being accessories to murder, were postponed until next Monday at Salem.

BOYS IN POLICE COURT
Charged With Obstructing
Gorham Street

William Eagan was arraigned in court this morning on a complaint, charging him with unlawfully obstructing a street in violation of a city ordinance. Thomas Warburton, aged 15 years, was summoned into court, but inasmuch as he was not of age his case was continued until next Friday, when he will be brought before the juvenile session.

The first witness for the government was Patrolman Thomas H. Hessian, who testified that one week ago Sunday he saw Eagan and others at the corner of Gorham and Dix streets. He said that the boys were shooting craps. He saw them at 10:35 o'clock in the morning and later saw them at 11:10 and chased them away, the boys running through Moore street on the approach of the officer. At 5:05 o'clock in the afternoon the defendant was in the street.

Questioned by Deputy Hugh Downey, Patrolman Hessian said that he had noticed the boys shooting craps on various occasions, but owing to their age he did not want to place them under arrest. He said that he had notified them that they should not blockade the street, but they did not heed his warning.

The witness explained that there has been a gang of boys who have been in the habit of loitering about Gorham street at the corner of Dix street, which is directly opposite Moore street and that at times he had noticed that pedestrians passing through the street had to walk into the middle of the road in order to avoid them.

Patrolman Owen J. Tansey corroborated a portion of the testimony of Patrolman Hessian and although he did not see the boys shooting craps, he testified to seeing them blockading the sidewalk.

The government rested its case at this point.

The only witnesses for the defense was Eagan. He very frankly admitted that he shot craps on different days, but denied that he was in the game which was being played a week ago Sunday. He also admitted that he visited the South common.

At the conclusion of the testimony Judge Enright ordered the defendant to pay a fine of $3.

Charged With Larceny
Paul Stolis and John Drolette were charged with the larceny of 300 pounds of lead pipe from the property of Arthur Montferand. It is alleged that they ripped the pipe off a building. At the request of the counsel for the defense the case was continued until Sept. 25th.

Drunken Offenders
William Green and Thomas F. Sheehan were charged with drunkenness. Each entered a plea of guilty and fines of $5 were imposed. Three first offenders were fined $2 each and several simple drunks were released before the opening of court.

There Was No Violence
DULUTH, Minn., Sept. 20.—While disorder and riot reigned in Superior, Wis., last night, striking men in Duluth devoted their time to posting pickets at the car barns of the Duluth Street Railway company but no violence was attempted on this side of the bay.

WATERWAYS BOOMERS
To Hold Convention in Little Rock, Ark.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 20.—W. K. Kavanagh of St. Louis, president of the Lakes to the Gulf Deep Waterway association, will preside at the convention to be held here Sept. 24 to 26. It is expected that Col. Roosevelt will address the gathering, which will be attended by representatives of commercial bodies from all over the Mississippi valley.

International Harvester Case
CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—Subpoenas were issued today for more employees of the International Harvester company who are to testify in the government's anti trust suit against that corporation. The attorneys for the government declined to say for whom the papers were issued.

Lawrence Dynamite Cases
BOSTON, Sept. 20.—Only one witness, Ernest R. Bradford, answered a summons today to appear before the Suffolk county grand jury which is completing its investigation of the alleged "planting of dynamite in Lawrence during the mill strike last January." Mr. Bradford is a member of the state police and was on duty in Lawrence during the strike.

THE PRESIDENT RAPS CONGRESS

Says That Repeal of Tarsney Act
Cost the Government its Best Architects

BOSTON, Sept. 20.—A running fire of praise for President Taft, of compliments to Chelsea, and of admiration for its latest public building characterized the speeches made last night at the banquet given to celebrate the opening of Chelsea's new postoffice. Some 600 gathered in the state armory to do honor to the nation's executive, and a large crowd waited outside several hours in the rain for the coveted glimpse of President Taft.

At the preliminary reception, which lasted from 7 to 7:30 p. m. the city's distinguished guest shook hands with everybody present, the introductions being made by his military aide, Major Thomas L. Rhoads. On his entry into the banquet hall the president received an enthusiastic welcome.

The after-dinner addresses were opened by Horace B. Lambert, chairman of the general committee, and the speakers were introduced by Townsman Francis X. Tyrrell, who called forth a new outbreak of enthusiasm for the president by asking: "What better example of loyalty could we find than our guest, through whose veins flows the crimson blood of loyalty without the slightest hint of treachery?" Mr. Tyrrell spoke of the rehabilitation of Chelsea as without parallel in the history of the nation.

President Introduced

Mayor James H. Malone delivered the address of welcome to President Taft, saying in the course of it: "The city has arisen from its ashes better and stronger financially than it ever was before, and Chelsea demands a place in the nation's history as an example of American pluck and American patriotism."

In introducing President Taft, Townsman Tyrrell called him "the biggest hearted and best-natured president we ever had in the executive chair." "I was a delegate to the democratic convention at Baltimore," added Mr. Tyrrell, "and I found him the most democratic gentleman I had ever met." (Laughter and applause.)

There was prolonged cheering when the president rose to speak. Mr. Taft began by congratulating Chelsea on the great fight its citizens had made against misfortune, and on the fact that, rising Phoenix-like from its ashes, it now felt more prosperous and better because of its losses and because of the opportunity they had given it to show the character and stuff that were in it. The president alluded to the help given by the nation to cities in distress, and went on to say:

"Congress is frequently criticized for spending a great deal of money on public buildings. Sometimes you will hear a pessimist call a public building bill a pork barrel in which each congressman is supposed to get a little pork. But that is unjust. It is right that the national government, in a building which represents its jurisdiction and its usefulness to the community, should have a noteworthy structure—one that furnishes an example not only of utility, but also of beauty and of art."

Raps Last Congress

While I am not here to discuss politics or criticize anybody, I do feel that the last congress made an error in repealing what is called the Tarsney act, which enabled us to avail ourselves of the services of the greatest architects in the construction of public buildings. If anybody can afford to have the best architects it is the United States. We do more building than any other country. What is the difference if it costs more to have a beautiful building across the lines of art than to have a structure which, though useful, is a blot on beauty? "The nation is something with a big H" and whenever you see a nation in any element that element ought to have about it the characteristics of the nation. I am in favor of progress through development of the individual, and I may be pardoned if I say that none of the posthumous we hear about will help us unless the individual himself exemplifies public duty in the performance of his interest.

"I congratulate Chelsea that such a spirit prevails here. I congratulate Massachusetts that she still furnishes the model of citizenship and the spirit of national and state loyalty, of which 'Prosperity is better than I believe, and I cannot be mistaken when I say that the kind of public spirit exhibited here will bring a share of that prosperity to Chelsea. I sincerely hope that God will enable you to enjoy it.' (Cheers.)

Other Speakers

John G. Lane, dean of the value of the partial relief in uniform the country, and praised President Taft for his part in bringing about postoffice savings banks and a parcel post. "I attribute we have tried to give the president tonight," said the speaker, "because the great mass of the people know he is not alone able and powerful; they know also that he is honest." (Cheers.)

Congressman Ernest W. Roberts told the story of the new post office building, and complimented Chelsea on the help for his aid in expediting it. Joseph A. Conry, one of the directors of the port of Boston, pointed to the recent appropriation of $55,000 for the development of Chelsea as a stimulus to its citizens, characterizing the president of the evening as "the president of Taft, not only in his position, but in his personality, represents the highest type of integrity, honesty and idealism." (Cheers.)

The Rev. D. Perry Bush, pastor of the First Universalist church of Chelsea, and Townsman Edward C. Malone, of Boston, also addressed the gathering.

President Taft was again enthusiastically cheered as the meeting broke up an after-dinner reception was given to the president by a crowd of 2000 persons, to whom the president repeated his praise of the men and women of Chelsea, wishing them success and prosperity.

GENERAL HOTEL STRIKE

Action Deferred by the Officials of Union

BOSTON, Sept. 20.—Officials of the International Hotel Workers' union voted last night to postpone calling a general strike for a few days in view of the action yesterday of one of the large hotels in granting all the demands of its employees presented by a committee from the union. Another reason advanced for the delay is that it is regarded as certain that the executive committee of the Boston City club will today grant its employees virtually all they have asked.

The name of the hotel which has agreed to the demands of its employees for their betterment is withheld by the officials of the Hotel Workers' union by request of the proprietors of the hotel. Today a committee from the union will call on the officials of the Boston Athletic association and present a list of demands in the interest of the club's employees.

At a mass meeting of the union it was unanimously voted that as about 90 per cent. of the Hotel Workers' union are also members of the International Geneva association that they will resign their membership in the association. In the next 24 hours unless that action is taken, the union will call out its members now employed in certain hotels, especially the Hotel Touraine.

Arrangements are being made by the executive officers of the union to hold a monster meeting at a date to be announced later, at which organized labor of this city will be invited to attend. Speakers of prominence in labor and other circles will be requested to address the meeting.

The first court arrangement following the investigation by the state police of hotel conditions came yesterday when John E. Jones, manager of the American House, appeared before Chief

A number of the waiters at the City club had arranged to walk out during the lunch hour yesterday, but were prevented by General Organizer Duran, who sent two men through the house warning the men not to go out under any circumstances.

The situation at the Touraine and Parker House remains unchanged. The Whipple management still refuses to take the men back in a body and to deal with the union.

ACCUSED OF BLACKMAIL

Two Girls Under Arrest
at Portland, Me.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 20.—In the United States district court yesterday afternoon before Judge Clarence Hale, Mary and Anna Gerkins of Lewiston, aged 16 and 18, pleaded not guilty to an indictment alleging that they sent a letter signed "The Black Hand" to Dr. Joseph W. Scannell of Lewiston, demanding that he bury $2000 in a tin box in Riverside cemetery on a given date near the Holland monument and he was told that if he did not do so his home would be destroyed and that in addition he would "part with his life." Harry Wilbur and Clarence Hunt appeared for the respondents and Arthur Chapman, the United States assistant district attorney, represented the government.

Chief of Police Cahill of Lewiston testified to certain interviews that he had with the two girls. They told him he said that their brother insisted on their writing another letter similar to one written to Dr. Scannell, but demanding double the amount.

They asserted that their brother claimed to be a member of a Black Hand society having its headquarters in Boston.

Dr. Scannell said that he received the letter purporting to come from the Black Hand society, and that after consulting with the chief of police he followed the directions in the letter and buried a tin box containing a worthless check in Riverside cemetery.

Ray C. Pickard and Maxine Deane, also two daughters, testified that they remained for several hours in the cemetery until the two respondents entered, went to the lot and dug up the box. They were about 40 feet from them at the time. As soon as they had the box and contents in their possession they were arrested.

SOCIAL AND FRATERNAL

Conant's Sales

J. E. Conant & Co., auctioneers of this city, report the sale of the Forest Mills company at Weymouth, Me., which took place yesterday afternoon. The mill was sold to E. H. Carpenter for the American Woolen Co.

The price paid for Lot 1—the plant—was $16,000. The fourteen parcels of village property were purchased in most instances by individuals, although the American Woolen company purchased three of the twelve parcels. The total of the village property was $22,000. The purchasers of the woodlands were represented by six individuals; they realized $15,000. The total sale price for the current year, aggregated $31,000. O. E. Conant, trustee for the Forest Mills company, expressed his satisfaction with the result of the sale when it was completed.

ENGINEER FROM BOSTON LOST

Cut Off on Mt. Washington by Dense Cloud—No Trace of Him After 36 Hours Search

FABYAN, N. H., Sept. 20.—Latest of the victims of Mt. Washington, it is feared, is John M. Keenan, a young civil engineer in the employ of the Boston & Maine railroad, supposed to be a resident of Charlestown, Mass. Lost yesterday morning about 11 o'clock, a search of 36 hours has disclosed no trace of him.

Mr. Keenan was a member of a party from the railroad's engineering department surveying the route for the proposed electric scenic railway up the mountain. A new man, he had been at work only a few days and was not at all familiar with the mountains.

Wednesday morning he was with a party of surveyors on the cone of the mountain near the Lake of the Clouds. He was holding a line rod and was standing at some considerable distance from the others of the party.

They were at cloud level and suddenly a thick cloud rolled in and enveloped them, so that the others could not see Keenan. Thinking that he might be frightened, they told him to remain where he was until the others came up, but when they reached the spot he was not to be found.

Hoping to attract his attention, the other surveyors shouted and fired revolver shots, but without result. It is supposed that in his fright when the cloud enveloped him and cut off the others from his sight, Keenan disregarded directions and tried to find his companion, but started in the wrong direction and was lost.

The wind was blowing a gale of over 50 miles an hour and the temperature was only 30 degrees, and Keenan, who was 23 years old, may have perished of exhaustion. It is possible, too, that in the cloud-mist he fell and was stunned or too badly injured to move.

Up to last night, although every effort has been made to find him, it has been fruitless. As soon as he was missed, messages were sent to various parts of the mountain, and everyone was put on the watch, but no one has reported seeing him.

All Wednesday night the bell on the summit was kept ringing, and the steam whistle at the base was blown at frequent intervals, in hope of attracting his attention, and at 5 o'clock yesterday morning a party of 20 set out after him. All day they searched the mountain, but without result.

Today a thorough search of the whole mountain range will be made by the full railroad engineering corps here and by all the available employees of the Mt. Washington railway, in the hope of finding him either dead or alive.

If, as is feared, Keenan has been lost, it will be the first fatality in 12 years. The last recorded was on June 30, 1900, when William B. Curtis and Allan Ohmsbee perished in a storm while attempting to ascend the mountain by the Crawford path.

Previous to that there had been several similar fatalities, the first known being the death of Frederick Strickland, an Englishman, in October, 1851, while attempting to descend the Ammonoosuc Ravine. On Sept. 3, 1874, Harry W. Hunter of Pittsburgh perished near the Crawford Bridge Path and his body was not discovered until July, 1899, six years afterward.

THE HIGH SCHOOL

People of Colebrook, New Hampshire, Think That They Have Solved the Problem

How can the high school best meet the needs of the community? The people of Colebrook, N. H., think they have solved the problem. The experiment is interestingly described in a bulletin just issued for free distribution by the United States bureau of education.

Colebrook academy is located in a town of about 500 population in northern New Hampshire. Starting in the first third of the century as a private school it later became part of the public system of education. For years it has successfully done the work expected of a high school in the traditional branches of the New England school. Now it is trying to do something more. Without lowering its standards, without ceasing to furnish the training necessary for those going into the professions, it is endeavoring to provide an adequate education for the great mass of boys and girls who ought to remain and grow up with the country. It is seeking, in other words, to readjust itself to the needs of the particular community in which it is. Just what this readjustment means may be seen from the following four significant additions to the school plant: the greenhouse, the dairy laboratory, the domestic arts department, and the workshop, including a carpenter and blacksmith shop. Complete courses are given in agriculture and domestic science. Colebrook is the centre of a rural district, and these are the vital interests of a large part of the population.

Colebrook academy does not propose to become a vocational school. It remains a general high school. The courses in agriculture and domestic science exist side by side with thorough courses in the traditional high school subjects, as well as the commercial branches. "Its purpose is not primarily to make good farmers, or skilled mechanics, or professional housekeepers," says Hon. H. C. Morrill, state superintendent of New Hampshire. "The primary object is the education of the boy and girl to become a sincere and efficient and hapthe belief that there is just as truly a cultural development of the individual to be had from competent instruction in agriculture or domestic science as from competent instruction in Latin.

The significance of the Colebrook movement lies in the fact that it demonstrates the basic principle upon which the American high school must stand or fall; that it shall be a direct source of strength to the community that pays for it. The feeling exists that secondary rural schools have in many instances weakened the communities which supported them; that by the very efficiency of their work they have trained young men and women for other fields of usefulness and have thus frequently deprived the community of the services of its best citizens. It is said that New Hampshire has been a notable sufferer from this process, and that readjustment is necessary if the process is to be checked and the upbuilding of the country districts is to go on again. All over the country there is the same problem. It seems obvious that if the public high school is to justify itself it must constantly put back into the community the best of each generation as permanent residents.

Particularly important is the part to be played by the reconstructed rural high school in the country life movement. The Colebrook Academy dignifies the fundamental arts of agriculture and home-making. Given schools of this type, with a program of studies matching the real interests of the community, and rural civilization may in truth be made as efficient and satisfying as other civilization.

AN AGREEMENT REACHED

Case Was in Court for Thirty-Six Years

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—Prospect of an early settlement of the 36-year-old contest before the supreme court of the United States between the Goulds and Thomas A. Edison, the inventor, and others, over telegraph patents, has revived interest in one of the big telegraph schemes of the last decade.

The case has been brought to an issue by a motion for the court to dismiss the case from its calendar.

The suit is based on 32 automatic telegraph patents Edison was granted in the early 70's. Edison disposed of two-thirds of his interest in the patents to George Harrington of Washington, with authority to assign his remaining third interest. About that time Jay Gould, owner of much of the stock of the Atlantic & Pacific Telegraph Co., entered into negotiations with Harrington to buy the automatic system.

Joseph G. Reiff completed the negotiations with Gould. They signed a memorandum whereby the Gould company was to buy the patents, and the automatic interests were to be given $4,000,000 stock in the Gould company. An assignment of the patents was made to Gould.

About this assignment the present litigation has centered. The Goulds claim that it passed the absolute title to the patents and that the Atlantic & Pacific Company, which received them in another assignment from Gould, was not licensing the patents. On the other hand, it is claimed, the assignment to Gould was on condition that the automatic interests be given the $4,000,000 stock, and as the condition had never been performed, Gould had no title to the patents.

BRAKEMAN WAS KILLED

He Dropped Off an Elevated Train

BOSTON, Sept. 20.—James I. Vanbusick, an elevated brakeman, who lived at the Hotel Dearborn, 237 Dudley street, was killed yesterday afternoon by falling on the third rail as his train drew into the State street station at Atlantic avenue.

The train, bound from Sullivan sq. at 4.45 for Dudley street, under charge of guard Guy Garner of Southville and Motorman Owen, approached the State street station at 5 o'clock. Vanbusick had been standing between the fourth and fifth cars. He evidently reached down toward the levers which control the car doors and lost his balance.

The special officer at State street was notified by trainmen who had seen their comrade fall. He sent for an ambulance and had the electric current turned off in the loop from Beach street to Battery street. Then the trainmen went and secured Vanbusick's body. He had struck beside the wheels, but the body was disfigured by contact with the "live" rail.

Service on the Atlantic avenue loop was tied up about a quarter of an hour by the accident.

Vanbusick was about 23 years old. He had lived at the Hotel Dearborn about five weeks. He secured employment with the railroad company during the recent strike.

S. R. and Mrs. Richard Murphy and Family of Lowell Take
Up Residence There

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Murphy and family, who for the past several years have resided in this city, left today for Adamsdale, Mass., where they are to take up permanent residence. The Murphy family came to Lowell from Providence, R. I., Mr. Murphy coming to act as assistant overseer of the finishing department at the Lowell Bleachery. They first located in upper Gorham street, taking up their residence in the old Fair Grounds building. While there Mr. Murphy also acted as caretaker of the grounds. When the fair property was disposed of, Mr. Murphy opened a store at the corner of Manchester and Gorham streets, where a very lucrative business was conducted. Mrs. Murphy taking charge of the store. About one year ago, the family moved to 26 Maple street, where they have since resided. Though in Lowell but a comparatively short time, Mr. and Mrs. Murphy made a number of friends, and all regret their departure from this city. In the Bleachery where Mr. Murphy was employed during his stay in the Splendid city, he was well liked by all, and the esteem in which he is held by his fellow employees, was attested last evening, when upon completing his duties there all assembled around him, and presented him a large purse of gold. The presentation address was delivered by John McLaughlin, who had of the great regret they all felt in his departure for another field, and said that all would ever remember a complete success. He said that Mr. Murphy in accepting the gift took a fall, and said that it came to him as a complete surprise. Aunt Sally's Advice
to Beauty-Seekers

C. M. P.: The neck should receive similar attention to that given the complexion, so color and texture of the skin will be the same. A yellow neck and a white face give a discordant effect. Advice using for both neck and complexion, the treatment recommended in "Aunt Sally's Advice."

P. M.: First, stop frowning. If you would get rid of the lines between the eyes, the best application for such lines, and all wrinkles, is a solution of powdered kaolin, 1 ounce dissolved in which, half a pint of water. Rub the face in this daily until entirely relieved.

Notice: You hardly need such a list of cosmetics as you mention. Ordinary methodized use will help you more than any or all of them. It will gradually absorb the greasy, discolored complexion and you will soon have a new, healthy and healthy-looking skin. You cannot get more than all of the skin, which will cost you little at any drugstore. Apply night and day, and you will find it of benefit. Women's Realm.

At the conclusion of last night's exercises which was enjoyed by the members until a late hour.

THE BANCROFT WILL

Was Allowed by the Probate Court

WORCESTER, Sept. 20.—After a hearing in probate court yesterday, Judge Frederick H. Chamberlain announced that he would allow the will of Andrew J. Bancroft of Lancaster over the protest of William D. Bancroft, a son of testator, who was given a bequest of only $500 from an estate of $70,000.

The remainder of the estate is given in larger shares to the contestant's sister, Martha, who gets the homestead and $10,000 in cash, besides her regular share, and to his brothers, Edwin Bancroft, Geo. Bancroft and Chas. Bancroft, all of whom are lawyers in and around Boston.

The will makes the bequest of $500 to William with the specific statement that the amount is made small because William and his wife were beneficiaries of the entire estate of their aunt, Miss Sabrina Bancroft. William based his contest of his father's will on the claim that his sister, Martha, exercised undue influence on their father in the making of his will. He testified yesterday that his sister, Martha, was unflinching toward him because their aunt had left some $10,000 to him and his wife. He testified his sister showed anger and charged that his wife, Agnes, had influenced the aunt or the latter's will would never have been made as it was.

He testified that after the provisions of the aunt's will became known, his sister prevented him for months having any private conversation with his father, and the attitude of his brothers toward him also became cold.

Miss Martha Bancroft, sister of the contestant, denied that she had used any undue influence on her father in making his will. She testified she has taught school in Lancaster 16 years and boarded at home. She gave up teaching two years ago and devoted all her time to the care of the family home, and she took special care of her father during his last illness up to the time of his death a few months ago. She said she did not use any influence in favor of her other brothers or against William. Judge Chamberlain said the contestant had failed to show that the sister had exercised any undue influence, and announced that he would allow the will.

THE LOCAL OWLS

Held a Very Interesting Meeting Last Evening and Transacted Considerable Business

The local owl of the Owl was very much in evidence last night when several hundred of the "birds" flew to their nest in Elks hall, Middle street, and took possession of every available roost. Big-eyed C. W. Richards occupied the main roost and with great wisdom flapped his wings, opened wide his great eyes and called the birds to order.

Every bird present looked to the "great roost" and paid the closest attention when the "big owl" announced from the "great perch" that a special dispensation had been granted by the "great wise owl," Deputy Supreme President Ring of the New England states, and a big class initiation will take place in the Lowell nest at their second meeting which will be Thursday evening, Oct. 17.

The special business of last evening's meeting was the second reading and final action upon the amendments to the by-laws, recommended by the special committee on revision, and which were read at the August meeting of the nest.

The committee on revision were most thorough in their work. They held many meetings and carefully considered every section, in the code of by-laws, and submitted 27 amendments for the nest's consideration.

Some of the changes suggested by the committee seemed most radical to many of the members and much discussion was brought out. Nearly all were passed, however, and the Lowell nest has practically a new set of the most up-to-date by-laws for its direction.

Past President E. M. Bowers, speaking for the "Home Nest," stated that the Order of Owls is not yet eight years old, and according to statistics of fraternal organizations published on pages 539-540 and 541 of the New York World Almanac for 1912 the order of Owls has today 1713 lodges and during the year ending June 30, 1912 has made a net gain of 362 nests or lodges, and during the past 110 days ending Sept. 1, 1912 the Owls have instituted 118 lodges.

Brother Bowers spoke interestingly of the splendid work that is being done by the order throughout the Atlantic states, and read several paragraphs from "The Owl," the official magazine of the order, and brought out

ACID STOMACHS

Nine-tenths of All Stomach Trouble Said to Be Due to Acidity

A Physician's Advice on Cause and Cure

A famous physician whose successful researches into the cause and cure of stomach and intestinal diseases have earned for him international reputation, said in the course of a recent lecture that nearly all intestinal troubles, as well as many diseases of the vital organs, were directly traceable to a deranged condition of the stomach, which in turn was due nine times out of ten to excessive acidity, commonly termed sour stomach, or heart burn, which not only irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach, but also set up gastritis and indigestion. It is interesting to note that he condemns the use of patent medicines as well as of medical treatment for the stomach, stating that the stomach will heal itself if left to its own resources, and that the use of any disordered medicine, which, by neutralizing the acidity of the food, removes the source of the trouble. He contends that it is as foolish to treat the stomach itself as it would be to rub a man who stepped on a tack to rub moving the tack. Remove the tack and the foot will heal itself—neutralize the acid and stomach troubles will disappear. Irritating medicines and medical treatments are useless, being as the contents of the stomach remain acid; remove the acidity, and there will be no need for medicine—the inflamed lining of the stomach will heal itself. Suffering from acidity, sour stomach or heart burn should get a small bottle of bisulphate from their druggist, and take half a teaspoonful in a quarter of a glass of hot or cold water after meals, repeating in fifteen minutes, if necessary, this being the dose which the doctor has found most efficacious in all cases.

WESTFORD

A good sum was added to the treasury of the Union church as a result of the agricultural fair which was held Wednesday. The fair itself proved a grand success, and the display of fruit, vegetables, etc., was the best seen in the town in years.

The ladies also had a good display of jellies and fancy work. The fair opened at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and continued until 10 p. m. An old-fashioned New England supper was served to about 125 people from 5.30 to 7.30 p. m. At 8 o'clock the entertainment took place, given by Harrell, a magician, which pleased the large audience. A good sum was made for the church treasury. The following efficient committees were in charge: Committee of arrangements, Rev. D. Wallace, Miss L. B. Atwood, Mrs. L. W. Wheeler; entertainment committee, Mr. Walker, Miss May Atwood, fancy table, Mrs. Mattie Symmes, Miss Francis Banister, Mrs. Banister, Edith Wright, Miss Joyce, Mrs. E. and came to the house of Chief of Police Kelley and reported the matter. Chief Kelley notified Chief Franks of Lexington and Chief Urquhart of Arlington, and immediately a large force of men were sent out scouring the country for the robbers. It was learned that three men, probably the highwaymen, called at the farmhouse of Davis Pitch about 200 yards beyond the scene of the holdup, at 8 o'clock last night and asked for drinking water which was given them. It was fortunate for Mayberry that an automobile party came along at the time of the attack and the members of that party frightened the highwaymen away. Mayberry went on his way home to his farm in Carlisle. His injuries are not serious.

CARLISLE FARMER IS BEATEN

He Was Held Up and Robbed by
Three Men in Bedford
Last Night

BEDFORD, Sept. 20.—Eugene Mayberry of Carlisle, a farmer, who was returning from the Boston market on his one-horse market wagon, was held up, beaten and robbed in this town at 9 o'clock last night by three men. Mayberry gave the highwaymen such a desperate battle that they were glad to flee after they had obtained but a few dollars in silver, not being able to get possession of Mayberry's roll of currency. The attack was made right in front of Lexington Park on Bedford street. One of the men stepped into the road and stopped Mayberry's horse and asked him about the road to Lexington. The other two men got on the wagon and began to beat Mayberry. One used a club and the other his fists. Mayberry returned some severe jolts and after the two robbers had seized his silver, he got off the wagon and joined the third man in a fight into the woods. Mayberry then whipped up his horse

RED SOX DROP TWO GAMES

Giving Cleveland a Clean Sweep in Series—First Four Straight
Defeats of Season

CLEVELAND, Sept. 20.—The new American league champions lost two games to Cleveland yesterday by scores of 9 to 3 and 6 to 0.

Both games were short inning affairs. The first was called at the end of the fifth inning because of rain. After an hour's wait the second game was started, only to be called at the end of six innings because of darkness.

Boston lost the entire series of four games to Cleveland, the first time this season they lost four consecutive games.

The first game was enlivened by the election of Manager Stahl and Outfielder Speaker of Boston from the game and grounds for disputing a decision by Umpire Connolly.

Walsh Wins Battle

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—Borton's double, a passed ball and Egan's wild throw to third gave Chicago the final game of the season with Philadelphia here, 1 to 0. Walsh and Houck performed in a pitching duel, the latter retiring to allow Coombs to bat for him. Two hits were made off Houck. Walsh struck out 11 men, three of them in a row and he did not allow a hit until the eighth and ninth innings when the visitors made three scratch singles.

Keating Was Wild

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 20.—Keating's wildness and errors by his teammates allowed Detroit to defeat New York yesterday, 6 to 5 in a dull game.

Miller Makes Good

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 20.—Although Hamilton struck out 11 men, Washington, taking advantage of St. Louis' errors, won the final game of the series, 4 to 2. Hughes was effective after the first inning. Miller, secured from Lowell in the N. E. league, played a good game on first, and also made one hit.

Frank Baker III

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—Frank Baker, third baseman of the Philadelphia American league team, is ill with tonsillitis and was unable to play in yesterday's game with Chicago. He will be sent home tomorrow and probably will be out of the game for a week or 10 days.

BOSTON GRAVES

Divide in Double Header With Pittsburgh—Hess Again Pitching a Great Game.

BOSTON, Sept. 20.—Boston and Pittsburgh shared yesterday's double header, the locals winning the first game, 3 to 2, and Pittsburgh being ahead, 5 to 1, when the second game was called after seven innings on account of darkness. Hess kept Pittsburgh's hits scattered in the first, while Boston punched his in the fifth and seventh innings off Cooper and Adams, respectively. In the second game the hitting by each team was free. Perry's wildness helped Boston considerably.

Cincinnati Won and Tied

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—New York lost the first game to Cincinnati, 3 to 1 yesterday, and the second game of the double header was called at the end of the ninth with the score 2 to 2.

The opening game was Cincinnati's first victory on the Polo grounds this season. Both games were pitchers' battles. Snags besting Tressau in the first game, while Mathewson and Fromme held each other to an even break. Fromme had victory within his grasp but weakened with two out in the ninth when Merkle singled, stole second and scored the tying run on Herzog's single. The holding of Herzog and the batting of Knizeley were the features.

Chicago and Brooklyn Split

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Sept. 20.—Chicago split even with Brooklyn in a double header yesterday, the locals winning the first, 9 to 6 and Chicago the second, 12 to 4, in six innings. Rain fell throughout the afternoon and the wet ball was responsible for much of the loose play in which each team figured. Six runs off Madden in the first game gave Brooklyn a winning lead. Chicago drove Stack from the mound in four innings of the second game.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

The Graniteville White Sox baseball club would like to play the Salem A. C. of Lowell on the home grounds in Graniteville Saturday, Sept. 21. If the Salem A. C. accepts this challenge, please telephone to 12-13 Westford, Friday evening between 5 and 7 o'clock. Alfred Gagnon, manager.

The Dodgers have won 15 games and lost two and claim the championship of the city at 18 years old. We would like to hear from any team that think they have a right to the championship of this city. Please write or answer through this paper.

The Beaneys will play the Crimson A. C. on the Little Canada playground Saturday at 3 o'clock. As each team has won a game, a close and exciting game is expected.

MANHATTANS—SO. ENDS

Will Clash at Spalding Park Tomorrow to Settle Championship of the City

The lineups for the big game between the South Ends and Manhattans will be posted tonight, and then all that will be needed is a good day Saturday when the crowd will flock out to Spalding park to witness what promises to be the most hard fought amateur game ever pulled off in this city. Mr. Morgan, who has been selected to umpire this championship game will call play at 3 p. m. and from that time until the last man is out in the ninth there is sure to be something doing. Never before was there such interest in an amateur game in this city for the game is being talked up everywhere, and already a large number of bets have been placed on the result.

There will be plenty of special cars leave the square before the game, and the crowd promises to be the largest that has witnessed an amateur game in this city for many years, even surpassing the last game between these two teams, when 1800 enthusiastic fans made their way to Spalding park.

Besides battling for the city championship, each team will post $100 and the winner will take the $200 purse and all the gate receipts.

BASEBALL PROBLEM

Interesting Decision Given by Eddie Grant of the Cincinnati Baseball Team

Eddie Grant of the Cincinnati Reds, looking at the game and its rules with the keen insight of a legal mind, is always finding some interesting problem to spring. He has discovered an answer to this question:

"Is it possible for a batter to score a run when he hits the ball over the fence in the last half of the ninth inning, with a runner on third and the score a tie?" The ready answer would be "No," for the game is over as soon as the runner from third crosses the plate, and no other run can be scored. Therefore the batter gets no better than a triple at best and cannot score a run. But Eddie has found a way for him to score. Suppose the runner from third wants to see the batter get credit for a home run. He can approach the plate, but refuse to touch it. Meanwhile the batter can circle the bases, and the two runners can stand side by side, close to the plate, but not touching it.

As the ball has been knocked over the fence it will be necessary to put another ball in play, which the umpire can do. Then the runner from third might be touched out, which would allow the batter to touch the plate and score the winning run, besides getting credit for a home run. This play is not likely to come up, but the solving of the problem indicates that Mr. Grant will succeed nobly in his profession of the law, where such questions are matters of daily occurrence.

Here Are the Boston Red Sox Who Expect to Become Champions of the World by Defeating Giants

BOSTON, Sept. 19.—Boston is baseball mad, and here are the players who have brought about this condition. And now Boston expects the Red Sox to defeat the Giants in the forthcoming games for the championship of the world. There is no "if" or "and" about it from the Boston point of view. The thing has to be done, and it will be done. The Boston players shown in the picture are, from left to right, Yerkes, Wood, Bedient, Nunamaker, Hooper, Manager Stahl, Carrigan, Wagner, Speaker, Page, King, Cadgr, Engle, Hendrickson, Hall, O'Brien, Bradley and Lewis.

Captains of the Big Eastern College Football
Elevens Are Planning For a Very Busy Season

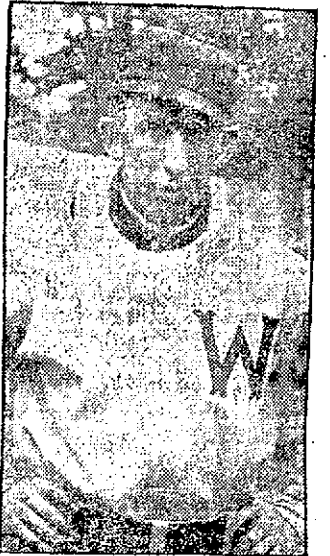

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The 1912 football season is at hand. In the east for the past two weeks the coaches at the different colleges have been hard at work preparing the men for the gridiron campaign when officially opens Sept. 21, when Carlisle tackles Albright at Carlisle. A week later and all the big elevens will be seen in action. The outlook at Princeton is very bright. Head Coach Cunningham has one of the largest squads that ever appeared for practice at Tigerville. Although several of last year's stars are missing, the followers of the orange and black expect to have a strong eleven. Yale has brilliant prospects. Chief Adviser Walter Camp and Capt. Spalding say that the New Haven men will make a strong bid for the championship this season. Cornell has one of the largest football squads in the history of Ithaca university. Coach Sharpe and Capt. Butler have been drilling the men for some time, and the experts predict that the wearers of the white and red will be well represented on the gridiron. The outlook at Penn is bright. The Quakers have a number of last year's men left and a number of stars from the creek 1911 freshman team. Capt. Mercer at fullback will again lead Pennsylvania. Harvard was the last of the big eastern teams to start practice. Coach Percy Houghton has several of the best stars left and with the promising material on hand expects to present a strong eleven.

Pitchers Can't Fool Baker
Frank Baker, the Athletics' crack third sacker, like all great natural hitters, is not to be fooled to any extent by any certain brand of delivery. A pitcher may figure that he has discovered a brand of balls that will fool the champion's great slagger, and he may be encouraged in this by seeing Baker make several futile efforts to land on the ball, but this assures nothing. The very kind of ball that Baker may appear weak on in one inning he is apt to drive out of the field the very next time up. The best a pitcher can do against Baker is to try his best and trust to luck, and when the pinch is tight it would seem good policy to work him and take chances on some other batter, for there are few as dangerous as Baker.

"BOB" GANLEY RETURNS HOME

From Frederickton N. B.,
Where He Captained
Pennant Winner

"BOB" GANLEY

Robert (Bob) Ganley, Lowell's clever ball player, who for a number of years acted as captain of the Washington American league team, playing centre field and later went to the Philadelphia Athletics, but still later with the Milwaukee team, has returned to his home here after a very successful season at Frederickton, N. B., where he captained the team representing that place in the Maine-New Brunswick league. The Frederickton team won the pennant, and "Bob" was greatly responsible for the remarkable success of his team. His previous experience in the big show made him a valuable man at the head of the team and he played a very good game himself. The league was made up of four teams namely: Frederickton, N. B., Houlton, Me., Woodstock, N. H., and St. John, N. B. The race was a very interesting one and some very good games were played. Among the players who helped the Lowell man land the flag was P. J. Duggan, formerly of the Lowell, New England league team, who was recently sold to the Chicago White Sox. Ganley made a fine impression all along the league circuit and owing to the great race the team was a very good proposition, financially. While several other teams are anxious to get Ganley as he is still a very good man, Bob was so well pleased with the way he was treated down east that he expects to return and take charge of his pennant winning team.

KILBANE WON BOUT

But O'Keefe Proved a
Stiff Opponent

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Johnny Kilbane of Cleveland, featherweight champion, outpointed Eddie O'Keefe by a small margin in a 10-round bout which went the limit at the Garden A. C. last night. The champion featherweight earned the honors of the mill, but he did not add to the luster of his quality as a fighter.

Kilbane dropped O'Keefe in the second round, but as the Philadelphia was off his balance at the time, the champion did not achieve much glory by the punch. Only at intervals did Kilbane show any real class. All in all, it was a poor showing on his part and the crowd left the garden wondering how he had ever won the title.

O'Keefe was afraid of Kilbane. If he had not been afflicted with fear he would have shown to better advantage. As it was, in several periods he displayed more cleverness and science than Kilbane.

Jack Goodman boxed 10 rounds with Paul Kohler of Cleveland. Kohler was the aggressor throughout, using a hard right to the face effectively. At the end Kohler's eyes were decorated and his lips badly cut.

Willie Decker of this city stopped Tommy Gans of Chicago in the fifth round. The Chicagoan was in a bad way physically and the referee stopped the bout.

Draw at New London

NEW LONDON, Conn., Sept. 20.—Ed Palitz and Abe the Newsboy fought the 10-round star bout at the Central A. C. in Aborn hall last evening, the mill being declared a draw. Abe is a New London boy and well known on account of his boxing and wrestling on the ships of the North Atlantic squadron. He depends more upon his strength than his science and landed some terrific wallop.

Palitz is conceded the fastest man among the 1500 United States artillerymen in the island fortification and his excellent physique and all-round scientific work saved him from a severe drubbing. It is probable the men will meet soon again.

DUTY OF DEMOCRATS IN THE PRIMARIES

With the approach of the primaries which will be held next Tuesday, it is important that the democrats of Lowell prepare to make the most of their opportunities at the polls. It will be their first duty to vote for the strongest candidates on the ballot.

The work of the popular primary is fundamental, and a mistake made there cannot be corrected on election day. If a weak candidate be nominated, he will simply go down in defeat before his republican opponent. This is a matter on which every voter should exercise good judgment. It is utterly useless to vote for a candidate who will have no chance of election. A great many citizens are inclined to vote for personal friends and acquaintances, disregarding wholly what should be done for the good of the party which in this particular case is the main consideration.

This is a presidential year, and not for the last twenty-five years has a better prospect of victory presented itself to the democrats of the nation. It is expected that on account of the disruption of the republican party the democrats will secure a national triumph, but they cannot do this without the united and harmonious action of the democrats throughout the country.

The state of Massachusetts should go democratic this year, and will in all probability be carried by the democratic nominee for governor provided the right candidate be named. There will also be a greater number of congressmen than usual elected this year if the democrats do their duty, that is, if they exercise reasonable judgment in the selection of candidates who can be elected; but if they throw their votes away upon men who, if nominated, would have no chance of election, then the opportunity will be lost.

There is no reason why under such favorable conditions the republican majority of the fifth congressional district should not be wiped out by the democratic candidate. If the democrats nominate a strong man there will be no doubt as to the result. It is the duty of every voter, therefore, to exercise his best judgment in helping to select the candidate who will be most likely to secure a victory at the polls. This is a simple matter to determine, and if a wrong decision be made the chance of victory on election day will be thrown away.

In the representative and other contests the same rule applies. If the democrats want to win they must put up their strongest men; they must nominate men who will properly represent them, who will fight for democratic principles, who will render intelligent service to their constituents, and who can be relied upon not to sell them out when any corporation comes around soliciting votes to carry its measures against the interests of the masses.

The delegation sent to the legislature from Lowell should be creditable to the city, it should be made up of bright, honest and intelligent men of affairs who will act with due discretion upon the measures that come before them, and who will at all times stand for democratic principles and democratic candidates. The time is not far distant when the Massachusetts legislature may send a democrat to the United States senate. For that reason it is important that a strong candidate be put up in every representative and senatorial district so that no point of advantage may be lost.

It is important also that every voter go to the polls at the primary elections so as to make the nominations as expressive as possible of the will of the people. Where the vote at the primaries is small candidates may be nominated who cannot be elected. That is one great reason why it is essential to have the voters come out in full force. The voter who assists in nominating a candidate at the primaries as a rule will endeavor to work for his election at the polls. Therefore, it is the duty of every candidate and of every democrat to assist in getting the voters to the polls next Tuesday so that after the primaries there may be no criticisms of the nominations made.

MAYOR O'DONNELL COMMENDS THE CHARTER

Mayor O'Donnell's address delivered before the League of American Municipalities at Buffalo, N. Y., did not overstate the merits of the charter in the least. Owing to the fact that the charter has been in force but eight months, it would seem ridiculous for his Honor to come out with unqualified praise of it. The merits of the charter must be judged by the results.

The mayor is quite right in asserting that the new charter is superior to the old; that under its provisions the city's business is done far more systematically and more carefully than under the old. All this is true, but this does not fully express the character of the change that has taken place. The charter is not very specific in regard to business methods and it devolved upon the new board to supply by ordinance what the old board had not.

This is done in the recommendations of Expert Rev. and which were adopted recently by the municipal council. The charter does not prevent bad men making a mess of things, although it provides for recall and referendum for relief in such cases. The recall has not yet been invoked, but it is the only weapon by which the people can get rid of themselves against unfaithful or incompetent officials.

As Mayor O'Donnell suggests, it is too soon to estimate the financial results of the new charter; but he claims that the first year has shown a saving of $50,000. His Honor put the merits of the charter and its contribution thus far as succinctly as possible when he said:

"The present administration is laying a foundation of systematic and sound business methods which will rebound to the benefit of every taxpayer and to the honor and credit of the city."

Exception might be taken to this broad statement at least in so far as certain departments, yet it is an unqualified fact that the first year under the new charter encountered difficulties that have been disposed of in a manner that will help all succeeding boards.

MUD-SLINGING TACTICS

When any candidate seeking a democratic nomination adopts tactics calculated to split up his party so that it cannot elect any candidate, it is fair to assume that his motive is not an honest one. The democratic candidate who plays into the hands of the opposition by splitting his own party and renouncing it with ammunition against a possible democratic nominee is a party wrecker who, seeing that he cannot be elected himself, tries to prevent the election of the party nominee. What is this but party treachery? If a candidate begins to sling mud at his rival, the latter, if he wishes to descend to such tactics, has a right to do the same. That is how dirty fights are started and how party victories are lost. The man who starts the mud-slinging is responsible for the subsequent results.

IMPORTANT SCHOOL MATTERS

The conference of Supt. Molloy with the grammar masters called for today should consider the matter of lessening the number of truants and the equally important one of doing away with the lockstep system of annual promotions. There should be no retardation anywhere, and something should be done for backward pupils to prevent them falling so far behind that they become discouraged and want to stop going to school. Some of the grammar schools have an arrangement that in a measure answers this purpose; but in others the old system is still in full force.

The new steamboat regulations requiring every steamer to provide lifeboats for all passengers is objected to by some of the coastwise steamers. It is time they took this reasonable precaution for safety in case of explosion, collision or other serious accident.

Seen and Heard

Another holiday is on the way, Columbus day next month.

Only one more Thursday half-holiday.

Contractor Conlon has seen to it that he will not be bothered by rubber-necks while constructing the comfort station for the army of unemployed who delight to watch others work and tell them how to do their work will be hurried out. The fencing in of the street also may serve in the capacity of a successful precautionary measure if any blasting is to be done.

Supt. Dowd of the Chelmsford street hospital is rejoicing over a particularly fine corn crop.

Commissioner Cummings evidently believes in starting the new superintendent of schools amid congenial surroundings for he is about to repair the offices of the superintendent and the school committee rooms.

Some one should have petitioned for an injunction restraining the man who made the Sept. 12 rule on straw hats from carrying his rule into effect. Oct. 1 is early enough to abandon the summer lid, especially with the weather as it was yesterday.

"In the good old Indian summer time."

"You claim that the wheel of the defendant's car passed over your stomach," said the defendant's attorney to the plaintiff on the stand. "Yet here is your open-face watch which you testify to having carried in your vest pocket at the time, and the crystal isn't even cracked. How do you account for that?"

"Why," said the plaintiff, "the car was going so fast there wasn't time for the crystal to break, sir."

"One time," said William H. McElroy, "the report was circulated in a small town that Jim Smith had married for the fourth time. It caused a great deal of comment among his neighbors, one of whom said:

"Well, anyhow, it demonstrates the truth of an old saying."

"How do you make that out?" he was asked.

"The triumph of faith over experience."

A NEW LEAF

He came to my desk with a quivering lip.

"The lesson was done—"

"Teacher, I want a new leaf," he said; "I have spoiled this one."

In place of the leaf so stained and blotted.

I gave him a new one all unspotted.

"And into his sad eyes smiled—"

"Do better now, my child."

"I went to the throne with a quivering lip."

"The day was gone—"

"Father, then hast a new leaf for me? I have spoiled this one."

Jim took the old leaf stained and blotted.

And gave me a new one all unspotted.

And into my sad heart smiled—"

"Do better now, my child."

"Patsy" Lynch has been deposed as president of the Isaac Walton club of Lowell. Mr. Lynch is a tinsorial artist of the first water and a fisherman of any water. His fame as a tinsorial artist may have forever but as a fisherman he has been stripped of his yellow jacket and by a number of jackets too.

The new president of the Isaac Walton club is John J. Sullivan, the well known tailor. The meeting of the Isaac Walton club at which Mr. Lynch was deposed as president took place at Camp Dawson, Long-Sought-For pond, Westford. The club had an outing there Wednesday and the feature of the outing was a fishing contest and in order to have a contest there must, of course, be competition. There was some debate as to how the affair would be pulled off and it was finally decided to send out two boats, one captained by Mr. Lynch and the other by Mr. Sullivan. Let it be understood right here and now that for years Mr. Lynch has won all kinds of prizes at fishing and he had the air of an easy winner yesterday when the fight began, but the going down of the sun on that beautiful sheet of water, Long-Sought-For pond, cast its fading rays on a disheartened and discouraged man, and that man was "Patsy" Lynch. The boat had been called in at the hour agreed upon and "Patsy" Lynch was the only member of the club who was present at the outing and voted unanimously for Mr. Sullivan to succeed Mr. Lynch.

Mr. Joseph J. Kearney, John P. Adams, Dr. John J. Walsh, Stephen Kearney, Col. Harry P. Doherty, Dr. Matthew Mahoney, Eddie O'Donnell, James F. McCarthy, Jr., and John J. Sullivan.

Mr. O'Donnell was awarded the prize for the biggest fish. It was a two pound pickerel and, strange to relate, he hooked it back of the gills instead of in the mouth. Mr. Lynch said he did not think that Mr. O'Donnell should be awarded the prize because he did not properly hook the fish. Mr. O'Donnell said that anybody could hook a fish in the mouth but that it required skill to hook him in any other spot than the mouth. Great applause.

The prize for the first fish caught went to James F. McCarthy, Jr., and both Mr. O'Donnell and Mr. McCarthy were members of Sullivan's crew. Poor Patsy.

AS TO LOVE

'Tis said that love, when all is done, is but "two hearts" that beat as one.

But that's not true, as I have found. When love to visit me comes round, for as he enters in my door, He makes one heart beat like a score, or more!

If I were teaching love at school, And to define it I were asked, That 'tis an element by no means cool, That comes our way, Both night and day, Unthought, unasked, And as a rule, Makes man a hero or a fool, And best of all it is so rich He don't care which!

How shall I know him when I meet Fair love? The answer is complete, All ready to my hand, sunshine or storm, The symptoms are—heart overwarm, A shivering spine and truly Arctic feet!

How tell one's love? As it were well If so you rest beneath its spell To let its gold Remain untold, For love's a special kind of pelf That soon or late will tell itself, Yet, if it must be told, why, then, In trust it not to tongue or pen, The better plan, O, lover, faint but true, Is just to let your two eyes speak for you.

Resinol for tired aching perspiring feet

AFTER a hot, no amount of special treatment or washes gives quite such instant relief to poor, tender, tired, aching feet as a simple bath with Resinol Soap and hot water. Then rub on gently a little Resinol Ointment, let it stay for a few minutes while its soothing, healing antiseptic balsams sink into every pore, and wash off again with plenty of Resinol Soap. For excessive or offensive perspiration, use cold water instead of hot.

Trial free: Resinol Soap, (25c) and Resinol Ointment, (10c) and $1.00 are also invaluable household remedies for: Eczema, rashes, pimples, dandruff, chafes, sunburn and bites. You can write to Dept. S.A. Resinol Chem. Co., Baltimore, Md.

MUST PRESERVE ORDER

Judge Quinn Gives Notice in Haverhill Case

LAWRENCE, Sep. 20.—In the superior court yesterday Judge John P. Quinn, in sentencing a Haverhill defendant on the charge of assault committed in connection with a labor disturbance in that city, expressed himself in no uncertain terms regarding the use of violence in attempting to gain advantages in industrial differences. He said that foreigners coming to this country must realize that they are bound to respect the law and preserve peace and order.

The defendant was Charles Peters, who was charged with assault with a dangerous weapon on David Leahy. Judge Quinn sentenced the defendant to three months in the house of correction.

SURPRISE IN STANDARD OIL CASE

IN THE SCHOOL DEPARTMENT SPRUNG AT THE HEARING TODAY BEFORE REFEREE IN STANDARD OIL LITIGATION

Supt. Molloy Makes Arrangements to Have Public Keep in Touch With It

In order that the general public may be able to get into communication with the school department at any and all times during the day, the superintendent of schools, Hugh J. Molloy, has submitted the following information:

The office hours of the superintendent will be from 11 a. m. to 12 m., on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. This does not mean that he will not be at his office at other times during the day, but if anybody wants to see him relative to matters of importance having to do with the school department, he will be glad to make appointments with them for some time other than between the hours of 11 and 12.

Miss Alice T. Lee, supervisor of primary grades, will have her office in the school committee rooms and her office hours will be from 12 m. to 1 p. m., on every school day, and Miss Lee, too, will be glad to make appointments for other hours during the day.

It is the wish of the superintendent of schools to give the opportunity of communicating definitely with the school department on matters of importance from a reasonable hour in the morning, say 7 o'clock, until 1 p. m., and from 2 o'clock until 5 o'clock p. m. For this purpose, the following telephone numbers are given:

Superintendent's home telephone number 2121. The superintendent's home address is 33 South Walker street.

Home telephone of Miss Fannie A. Thompson, secretary at the school office, 1666.

Other home telephones are as follows:

Miss Alice T. Lee, 1045.

Mr. William F. Thornton, trustee officer and supervisor of janitors, 2432.

Mr. Henry L. Williams, trustee officer and school supply agent, 2711.

Superintendent's office at city hall, 2728.

School supply department, city hall, 2727.

For the purpose of necessary communication with the department in the early hours of the day, Miss Thompson will not, as a rule, leave her home before 8 o'clock and the school office at city hall will be open for telephone or personal calls from 8 a. m. until 1 p. m.

"It would seem," said Mr. Molloy, "that all matters connected with the school department, except in cases of emergency, might be attended to during the hours named in this schedule."

"But you might say that the superintendent wishes it understood that he will be ready at all reasonable time to meet persons in connection with school matters, or to consider matters of importance in the department."

"All mail which is connected in any way with school affairs would be addressed to the school office at city hall if the senders wish to be assured that it will not be overlooked."

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—In a dining-room at 20 Broadway and at the same table where heads of the Standard Oil planned and discussed the affairs of the trust in years gone by, there meets daily at luncheon now the men who made the Standard Oil a monopoly. So declared Richard C. Veit, secretary of the Standard Oil company of New York, testifying today before a referee in the Standard Oil-Waters-Pierce litigation.

"Who meets there?" inquired Samuel Untermyer, counsel for the Waters-Pierce interests.

"I don't know all of them."

"Does John D. Archbold still sit at that table?"

"Yes."

"Does Percy Rockefeller?"

"Yes."

Similar questions elicited the information that others who sat at the "big table" were John D. Rockefeller, William Rockefeller, J. A. Moffett, A. C. Bedford, H. C. Folger, Jr., G. M. Pratt, Walter Jennings, W. C. Teague, M. F. Elliott and others who were formerly officers and directors of the trust but are now officers or directors of the subsidiaries.

"Don't these men discuss their business there daily?"

"No."

"You hear them talking, don't you?"

"Yes; they talk in generalities. I hear them laughing and joking."

"How long have you been listening to them as they talked and joked and laughed?"

"Since last December."

This line of questioning met with vigorous objections by D. N. Kirby, the Standard's lawyer, and Mr. Untermyer dictated the following statement in reply for the records:

"The purpose of this questioning is to show the sham and humbug with which these people who have been segregated into these various companies meet here daily for the transaction of their business just as they met every day in years gone by."

Mr. Veit added that the late H. H. Rogers sat at this table and that the Rockefellers always took luncheon there whenever they were in town.

Bay State Street Railway Employees Accept Advance of One Cent an Hour

BOSTON, Sept. 20.—Differences between the Bay State Street Railway and its employees regarding wages were adjusted today. Representatives of 16 unions, at a conference in this city, voted unanimously to accept an advance of one cent an hour on Oct. 1 and a further increase of a half cent an hour a year later.

The advance was offered as a compromise by President P. F. Sullivan of the company. Wages are now paid on the basis of 22 1/2 cents an hour during the first year of employment with a graduated scale as high as 28 cents an hour for men in the service seven years or more.

The company operates nearly all of the street railway lines in eastern Massachusetts outside of Boston.

MEXICAN FEDERALS WIPED OUT BY REBELS

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Sept. 20.—It is reported that the entire command of federalists under Col. Obregon was wiped out by rebels in a battle at San Joaquin ranch today. Those not killed were reported taken prisoners by the rebels.

The rebels are said to have been led by Salazar and Rojas who were routed yesterday by the federalists. They are reported to have attacked the federalists while the latter were gathering up the rebel wounded and trying to ascertain the rebel losses in yesterday's battle. The rebel force was much superior to the federalists.

SOLDIERS WITH BLOODHOUNDS

Searching for Men Who Tried to Fire Coal Tipple of South Carbon Coal Co.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Sept. 20.—Scores of soldiers with bloodhounds are searching the mountains at the head of Carbon creek today for the men who last midnight tried to fire the tippie of the South Carbon Coal Company and the residence of Charles C. Cable, superintendent of the mine. Creeping along the paths in the dense forest, unknown parties passed through the lines of guardsmen and making their way to the tippie, saturated portions of it with oil and were ready to apply the torch when they were discovered by a sentry who fired his gun. The men fled to the woods.

A few minutes later a man was seen trying to set fire to the Cable residence not far away. He, too, was fired upon, but escaped. These attempts at incendiarism are the most daring since the strike was inaugurated, following so close as they do on the heels of the destruction by fire of the tippie of the Carbon Coal Company, earlier in the week.

Trophy Races Postponed
WAWATOSA RACE TRACK, Milwaukee, Sept. 20.—After waiting until nearly 2 o'clock for fair weather, the Pabst and Wisconsin trophy races were postponed until Tuesday because of the condition of the course. It was announced, however, that the Vanderbilt race would be run tomorrow and the Grand Prix on Monday.

TWO HORSE COAL TEAMSTER WANTED
Wages $15 per week. Apply at once. John P. Quinn, Gorham and Dix Streets.

NATURALIZATION SESSION ON MONDAY

The naturalization court of Massachusetts will hold session on Monday morning at ten o'clock, to admit those applicants for citizenship who have already taken out first papers, and those who are found fitted for receiving the last forms of naturalization will be given their final papers.

Clerk of Court Dillingham and the assistant clerk will be present, and it is not as yet known what state officer will preside. The number of applicants will be about 66, and the United States officers have been busy looking up the records of these and preparing them for presentation on next Monday.

INSURANCE RATES

Lowell Men Have Interview With State Commissioner on Insurance—Committee of Two Named

Messrs. J. E. Lambert and W. W. Thibodeau, both members of the Branch Pawtucketville, A. C. F., the former president of the said branch, paid a visit to the state commissioner on insurance this week relative to the increase of rates which was recently voted by the Artisans at their convention which was held in Montreal, Que., and which will go into effect on Jan. 1, 1913, and this is what the commission-er replied to the question: "Has the Artisan society any right to increase its rates?"

"Any society through its representatives in a convention has a right to increase its rates or make new rates if it is necessary to in order to abide with the insurance laws in the different states in which the society is doing business." This statement is sustained by the decision recently rendered by the supreme court in the case of Kelley vs. Royal Arcanum, which decision was based on the law of equity.

The question of the legality of raising the rates was brought to the Artisans a couple of weeks ago, when Mr. Thibodeau, president of Branch St. Joseph who was a delegate to the convention in Montreal, reported to the different branches of the Artisans the fact that the rates would be raised beginning January 1, 1913, and consequently a committee of two, composed of Messrs. J. E. Lambert and W. W. Thibodeau, was named to see the commissioner on insurance to ascertain as to whether or not the action of the delegates was legal in this state.

FUNERALS

ARVISAIS. The funeral of Edouard Arvisais who was accidentally killed by falling off a roof in Dutton street Wednesday, took place this morning from his home in Joliette avenue. High mass of requiem was celebrated at St. Jean Baptiste church at 8 o'clock by Rev. Fr. Gratton, O. M. I. The choir was under the direction of Dr. George E. Casse. Mr. Guibault presiding at the organ. The bearers were E. Robitaille, Napoleon Martel, J. Perreault, T. Robitaille, J. Theriault and T. Rondeau. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery, where the committal prayers were recited by Rev. Joseph M. Blais, O. M. I. Funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker Joseph Albert.

ATTACK OF PARALYSIS

Miss Leblanc of Aiken Street Suddenly Seized and Removed to Lowell Hospital

The many friends of Miss Wilhelmina Leblanc of Aiken street will be pained to learn that she is confined to the Lowell hospital with a severe attack of paralysis and her condition is considered very critical.

Miss Leblanc was suddenly seized with an attack of paralysis at her home yesterday and became unconscious. Dr. George E. Casse was summoned, but he advised three in attendance to have the woman removed to the hospital and the ambulance was called and Miss Leblanc was taken to the Lowell hospital.

ORPHANS AT ST. PETER'S ORPHANAGE AWAITING THE AUTOS

The cutting to the orphans held yesterday afternoon under the auspices of the Lowell Automobile league proved to be a grand success. While the weather was not ideal old Jupiter Phivus refused to turn his watering can on the little ones and spoil their good time.

The automobile owners who gave the use of their machines and also gave their services co-operated with the

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Was Held at the Home of Mr. John Richards in Willow Street Last Evening

A very pleasant birthday party was held last evening at the home of Mr. John Richards, 60 Willow street, in honor of the 21st anniversary of his birth.

The friends of Mr. Richards, who gathered at his home, presented him a pair of gold cuff links upon which his initials were inscribed, a fitting presentation being made by President Curry of the Pabst club. Although taken completely by surprise, the host responded very gracefully. An entertainment comprising the following program was furnished by the members of the Violet and Pabst clubs and was greatly enjoyed:

Solo, "My Hero," Mr. Charles J. Curry; solo, "Fair Moon," Miss Mary Hession; solo, "A Little Was Just Made to Love," Mr. William Madden; solo, "They Always Pick On Me," Miss Anna Brown; solo, "Silver Threads Among the Gold," Mr. Charles Rogers; solo, "Where the River Shannon Flows," Miss Catherine Lamb; duet, "Meet Me in the Vale of Dreams," Misses McLoughlin; solo, "In the Garden of Memory," Mr. Al. Chappell; solo, "Daddy Did the Same Thing Fifty Years Ago," Mr. John Richards; solo, "I'd Love to Live in Loveland With a Girl Like You," Miss Elizabeth Lath-ams; duet, Messrs. Matthew and Daniel Murphy; selections by the Violet club quartet, composed of Misses Coughlin, Manning, Hession and Latham; solo, "The Light of the Jungle Moon," Mr. Joseph Pratt; recitation, Mr. Thos. Higgins; solo, "As the Ship Went Down," Miss Agnes Coughlin; solo, "Meet Me Tonight in Dreamland," Mr. Clifford Sullivan; selections by the Pabst club quartet made up of Messrs. Curry, Higgins, Allen and Rogers under the direction of Prof. George A. O'Connor; solo, "O Salutaris," Joseph E. Kelly; piano solo, "One, Two, Three," Miss Ada Brophy; selection by mixed quartet, Miss Agnes Ralls, soprano, Mr. John Shanley, basso, Emma Lornie, alto, and William Porter tenor; piano duet, by Miss Lena King and Miss Annie Eastman.

The accompanists of the evening were Miss Catherine Manning and Mr. Chris. J. Allen. Refreshments were served and the party broke up at a very late hour after wishing Mr. Richards many happy returns of the day.

Clover club, Asso. hall, tonight.

Richmond Light Infantry
NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 20.—When the Richmond light infantry blues of Richmond, Va., who are in the city as the guests of the second company, Governor's Foot Guard, leave for their homes tomorrow they will carry back with them a garrison of a New Haven soldier in the Civil war when the federal troops entered Richmond. The garrison is a blue pennant several feet long and bears the seal of Virginia. It was presented to the Blues by Gov. Baldwin.

THE EUROPEAN PORTS

Being Improved For the Opening of Canal

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—In a report on the Panama canal and Panama trade, John B. T. director general of the Pan-American Union who recently made a trip through Europe to study what European governments and commercial interests are going to get ready for the opening of the canal, declares that every important port of Great Britain, France, Germany, Spain, Italy, Austria, Holland, Belgium is "being improved to the highest degree of efficiency for overseas commerce."

Every European ship building yard of recognized standing is busy to its capacity constructing ocean going merchant vessels, the report adds.

European governments are instructing their diplomatic and consular officers to study and report upon every phase of trade opportunity expected to result from the canal. Their chambers of commerce and other commercial organizations are co-operating along the same lines and the business schools are educating trained men for the field. Agents and trade scouts are being sent to Latin America and to all parts of the world affected by the canal to investigate trade possibilities.

THE PRECINCT OFFICERS

Were Instructed by City Clerk Last Night

A meeting of precinct officers was held in the old common council chamber at city hall last night. City Clerk Flynn called the meeting for the purpose of instructing the precinct officers in the work at the coming primaries and state election. Only 31 of the 216 precinct officers attended the meeting. Of those who did attend, 28 were democrats and 3 were republicans. One of the things discussed and explained by the city clerk was relative to enrollment. Previously if a man of one political faith went to the polling booth and found himself enrolled in another party, all he needed to do was to take out that he was of the political party in which he wished to vote and a ballot was given him. Hereafter all such errors must be referred to the registrars of voters and they will, upon finding an error, present him a certificate allowing him to change his ballot. The law concerning this change reads as follows: "No voter enrolled as a member of one political party shall be allowed to receive the ballot of any other political party upon a claim by him of erroneous enrollment, except upon a certificate of such error from the election commission or board of registrars, as the case may be, which certificate shall be presented to the presiding officer of the primary and preserved as part of the records of such primary."

The doing away with deputy wardens and inspectors, and the filling of vacancies is explained in the following: "If a clerk or warden is absent at the opening of the polls or subsequently on the day of election, or if the office is vacant, the senior inspector of the same political party as the warden or clerk, shall act as warden or clerk for that election, and the voters of the precinct, on nomination and by hand vote, shall fill the vacancy in the office of inspector."

U.S. OWES $1,700,450

But the Creditors Will Not Collect

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—The debt of the United States government on which interest has ceased, and the greater part of which probably never will be collected from Uncle Sam, aggregates $1,700,450, covering loans all the way from 1790 to 1907.

This fact was made public today by J. C. Nahler, register of the treasury, in his annual report for 1912.

There are a number of holders of these bonds who refuse to present them for redemption, although they know that the government long ago ceased to pay interest on them. Treasury officials are unable to explain their attitude except on the ground that they have their principal invested in the federal treasury. It is estimated that nearly $1,600,000 of this debt has been lost or destroyed.

This includes the outstanding issues from 1790 down through the Civil war issue. In the early days of the republic, bonds were called "stock" in the government. There is now outstanding $27,270 of the "5 per cent. stock of 1790," $13,335 of the "6 per cent. stock of 1800," $133,335 of the "6 per cent. stock of 1810," $133,335 of the "6 per cent. stock of 1815," $133,335 of the "6 per cent. stock of 1820," $133,335 of the "6 per cent. stock of 1825," $133,335 of the "6 per cent. stock of 1830," $133,335 of the "6 per cent. stock of 1835," $133,335 of the "6 per cent. stock of 1840," $133,335 of the "6 per cent. stock of 1845," $133,335 of the "6 per cent. stock of 1850," $133,335 of the "6 per cent. stock of 1855," $133,335 of the "6 per cent. stock of 1860," $133,335 of the "6 per cent. stock of 1865," $133,335 of the "6 per cent. stock of 1870," $133,335 of the "6 per cent. stock of 1875," $133,335 of the "6 per cent. stock of 1880," $133,335 of the "6 per cent. stock of 1885," $133,335 of the "6 per cent. stock of 1890," $133,335 of the "6 per cent. stock of 1895," $133,335 of the "6 per cent. stock of 1900," $133,335 of the "6 per cent. stock of 1905," $133,335 of the "6 per cent. stock of 1910," $133,335 of the "6 per cent. stock of 1912."

TWO WOMEN MAY DIE

Trolley Car Was in Collision With Surrey

STONINGTON, Conn., Sept. 20.—Four persons were injured, two of them very seriously, if not fatally, when a trolley express freight car on the Norwich & Western line struck the trolley in which the four were driving yesterday afternoon as it was crossing the track at Avery's Crossing in North Stonington.

The injured are: David Smith, Oakland, Cal., injured about the head; Mrs. David Smith, Oakland, Cal., ribs broken and back injured; Miss Kate Cope, St. Louis, Mo., broken arm and internal injuries; Miss Emily A. Cope, Boston, internal injuries. Mrs. Smith and Miss Emily A. Cope are believed to be the most seriously hurt. The injured were removed to the home of Mrs. I. W. Duggan, nearby. The trolley had almost cleared the tracks when the car struck it.

There is a sharp curve at the crossing which makes it impossible to see down the track for any distance.

The Smiths have a summer cottage at West Mystic, where they spend a good part of the year.

The Patent Medicine In England
A committee of the house of commons has, for some time past, been holding sessions in London for the purpose of investigating the law regarding the sale and advertisement of patent medicines in the United Kingdom.

In the course of the investigation, it has been developed that the sale of such medicines is equivalent to one package per year for every man, woman and child in the country; that as estimated by one witness, the amount of money spent on proprietary medicines in Great Britain alone in one year amounted to $12,166,250 or sufficient to maintain 30,000 hospital or sanatorium beds and that notwithstanding the enormous amount expended, the adulterated and dangerous and expensive department stated, in answer to question from the chairman of the committee, that there was nothing, in his opinion, in the law as it now stands to prevent any person making up any sort of mixture containing anything except arsenic, poison, from advertising it as a cure for any disease, and selling it to the public on payment of the stamp duty. He added that probably the police could prosecute if goods found were adulterated, but that it would be exceedingly difficult in its present form to obtain evidence that would cause a successful prosecution.

NAT GOODWIN

The Well Known Actor Has Lost the Use of His Legs and It is Almost Certain He Will Never Act Again

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—It is almost certain that Nat O. Goodwin will never again appear on the stage. A letter received from him yesterday said that he had been thrown out of the boat.

Since the accident the condition of the actor's mind has not been good, and his friends fear a breaking up of his mental powers. He is just able to draw himself up on his arms in bed.

to his friend, John Ernest Warren, secretary of the American Dramatists' association, from California says the actor is now paralyzed in the legs.

The letter explaining that the stories of Goodwin's mishap already published have been misleading. Goodwin is suffering from a fracture of the pelvic bone, which was not discovered for some time after he was thrown out of the boat.

Since the accident the condition of the actor's mind has not been good, and his friends fear a breaking up of his mental powers. He is just able to draw himself up on his arms in bed.

First Baptist Church

The annual social and reunion of the Sunday school teachers and officers of the First Baptist church was held last evening at the church and the number of those who attended was about 70. A supper was served and after the gathering listened to several interesting addresses, the chief speaker being Rev. Gray C. Lamson of Boston. He dwelt upon the Sunday school work in which he has had considerable experience. Rev. Mr. Cummings also spoke. Arrangements for the supper were in the hands of a committee of the Ladies' Benevolent society.

Is to Be Maintained By the Master Painters of Haverhill—Want Only $2.80 a Day

uation of the open shop, the Painters' union was called in special session last evening.

It is expected by members of the union that an open break will result from the special meeting of the union tonight, and the 120 members are prepared to engage in business in competition with the firms belonging to the Master Painters' Association. The union leaders say that as the men only want $2.80 per day, the public will benefit, as the masters now charge them $3.50.

The Latest in Stationery

Castling about him for some new object to decorate, the imp of extravagance has hit upon the lining of envelopes and has turned out a most artistic piece of work.

Envelopes lined with colored paper have long been in common use on the continent of Europe, but have never found favor in America until now.

The new envelopes are lined with satin, the part which is exposed on tearing them open being hand painted with flowers. The work is done by doll Japanese artists, and as it is necessary to say?—they are expensive.

As a Result of Strike at Bingham, Utah—Greeks and Cretans Entrenched

BINGHAM, Utah, Sept. 20.—Sixty-two hundred men now compose the army of mine workers made idle by the strike in the mines here Wednesday and present indications are that this number will be increased unless a settlement of difficulties is brought about within the next few days. The situation today was practically unchanged, and there appears to be little prospect of an agreement between miners and operators soon. Forty-five hundred of the idle men are strikers. The remaining 1700 were forced to leave their work when the concentrating mills at Garfield had to close down last night for lack of ore. The Greeks and Cretans who, until yesterday, were fortified in trenches overlooking the mines, have remained true to their promise to fight. They gave up the strong hold, but have not relaxed their vigilance on the mines. Pickets patrolled the roads leading to the mines last night and early today several shots were exchanged with deputy sheriffs who attempted to cross the highways leading into the hills. Many of the American miners and machinists who were in most part opposed to the strike have left the camp and are taking no part in the disturbance.

Were Arrested After a Long Chase

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Following a 20 minute chase over fences and rear yards in the vicinity of West 20th street, two men were arrested early today charged with burglary. Five other men escaped. The party of alleged burglars was surprised while looting the storehouse of Julius Cohen & Co., manufacturers of cloaks and suits. The police found $18,000 worth of stuff packed up outside the building while inside they found seven dark lanterns, two sticks of dynamite and a fine collection of burglar tools.

MILITARY MAN SHOT

By Picket Mistaking Him for Intruder

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Sept. 20.—Just before midnight members of Company 31 of the state militia, fired upon several men attempting to set fire to a tipple of the Carbon Co. at South Charleston. One man was fatally injured and probably others were injured. At Cherokee, near Elkinsburg, Charles Campbell, a militiaman, on picket duty was mistaken for an intruder by another militiaman. Each opened fire on the other. Campbell was shot in the arm and breast. It has not been learned whether his injuries are likely to prove fatal.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. John Shannon and Miss Elizabeth A. Conway were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the rectory of the Church of the Immaculate Conception by Rev. Fr. Sullivan, O. M. I. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Annie Conway and the best man was Mr. Michael Hyde. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Shannon. The bride and groom left on an extended wedding trip upon their return will reside on School street and will be at home to friends after Nov. 1. They received many beautiful wedding gifts.

ENJOYABLE TIME

Whist Party and Reception Held at Home of Miss Silk in North Tewksbury Last Evening

A number of friends were entertained last evening at the home of Miss Harriette Silk in North Tewksbury, when a whist party and reception were held. About 20 guests were present and all assisted in making the affair a pleasant one. The whist games were very close and interesting and many good scores were made. Later other games were played and a dainty repast served. A musical program of unusual excellence was carried out and the conclusion of the enjoyable affair, all thanked Miss Silk for the enjoyable time provided.

Priests' Retreat

The Oblate Fathers of St. Joseph's parish will make their annual tour of parish houses this week, at which time they will also take the census of the parish. This week the fathers are following their annual retreat which is being preached by Rev. Fr. Joseph O. M. I. of Montreal, Que. Rev. Henri Watelle, O. M. I., pastor of the parish, received word this week that the statue of our Lady of Purgatory which was ordered some time ago is on its way and will be here soon. This statue will be installed on the calvary which is being constructed at the French-American orphanage in Pawtucket street, in the rear of the rectory.

WOODWORKERS STRIKE

Not Settled Yet, But Many Have Left Town

While no general settlement between the employe and employer was ever reached in the strike of the cabinet makers and millmen which was declared in this city on the fifth of July, about all the strikers are now working. Many of them went to other cities, while some went back to the places they left. One of the mill owners promised with his men and practically all returned to their benches. In some instances, though the men are now working for the same pay as they received before making their demands for better hours and wages. Of those who left Lowell, several went to Lynn, others to Boston and more to Worcester. One labor man in conversation with the writer said that while it may be said that the strike is off, the fact that the men were not granted an increase, has been a blow to this city. He said that the more skilled men who came out sought employment in other cities, and at least six are now in charge of departments in other cities. This has decreased the working efficiency in our city and has caused us to lose some of our best men. Of those who returned, the majority are those who learned to operate but one kind of a machine, and went back because they were unable to find employment in other places.

Members Take Notice

ALL CHECKS STAMPED

New Equipment Installed at the Depot

A new rubber stamping equipment has been installed at the baggage office at the Boston and Maine depot, to be used in making out checks. While all the checks come to the station, partially printed they embrace blank lines, which are filled in there. The stamping is in charge of Depot Master Dean, while the work is done by Baggage Master Frank Cross. All but seven checks are stamped at the local station and the work is a very tedious and important job. With the new equipment, better time can be made, as it is better supplied and of more durable material than the older one.

The general impression at the depot is that when the new time table is issued it will include a great many changes, especially on the western division. The new schedule will be announced about the last of this month, it is expected, and all are anxiously awaiting its arrival.

All the trains were on time today, and the traveling as well as the baggage was very heavy.

Several hundred, however, are expected to be here on Monday. Those who have arrived include: Reginald Magdole of Kingston, Jamaica; W. J. Latta of Cape Town, South Africa; R. J. Johnson of Birmingham, England; P. J. Smith of Cape of Good Hope, India and Robert C. Smith of Tripoli.

MOULDERS ARE OUT ON STRIKE

They Make a Demand for $3.25 a Day—In All About 150 Are Idle

Practically all of the members of Local 55, Moulders' union, are out on strike, the majority having left their benches this morning, while others have been away from the shops for some time. In one of the foundries the men have been out on strike for some time, while in another some of the men are working today, but they, too, will join the ranks, it is said, this evening.

In all there are about 150 men out, and they are asking for an increase of wages. At the present time the moulders are receiving $2.75 a day, for nine hours. They are asking for $3.25 per day for the same number of hours. The foundries affected are Robinson's, Peavey's, the City Foundry and Doherty's. In the first named, a strike was declared some time ago, according to one of the men who worked there, and as no settlement was reached, the men who came out are among those out of work at the present time.

The employees of the City Foundry and also those at Peavey's went to their employers this morning with their demands. When they were informed that their request would not be granted they picked up their tools and left. At Doherty's shop, however, the men are working today. Unless the request is granted there they, too, will join with the others. The strike was declared at a special meeting held at the union rooms in Middle street last evening. About all the members of the union were on hand, and when the demands were presented to the members for action, they were unanimously adopted. Second Vice President O'Leary of the International Moulders' union who came to Lowell from Cincinnati, will remain here until some settlement is reached. He will be assisted in conducting the affairs of the strike by Business Agent Murphy of the New England conference board as well as the officers of the local union.

Another meeting of the strikers was held at the union rooms this morning and addresses were made by Messrs. O'Leary and Murphy. Both urged the men to remain out until a satisfactory agreement was reached, and said that if that was done, they would be successful in their request for a higher living wage.

DRACUT

The W. C. T. U. of Dracut held their annual meeting and elected officers as well as delegates for the county and state convention. The officers elected are as follows: President, Mrs. Bessie L. Laker; vice-presidents, Mrs. Maria B. Fox, and Mrs. L. N. Parker at the Centre; Mrs. Annie M. Stevens at the Navy Yard; Mrs. H. A. Timson at East Dracut, and Mrs. Eliza C. Hutchinson at larger; secretary, Mrs. Helen M. H. Peabody; treasurer, Miss Pearl A. Barnett.

An important report was given by the mission superintendent who brought to light the amount of work done by this organization during the past year.

The department superintendents elected are: For the flower mission,

Mrs. Nellie L. Fox; Loyal Temperance Legion, Mrs. H. A. Timson; mothers' meetings, Mrs. E. Vivian Fox; literature, Mrs. Maria B. Fox; press, Miss Ruth E. Peabody; music, Mrs. Dorrie L. Lake; Sunday school observance, Mrs. Lucia V. Harvey.

CONSTIPATED, BILIOUS, HEADACHY, LIVER TORPID?—CASCARETS SURE

Turn the rascals out—the headache, biliousness, constipation, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out tonight with Cascarets. Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets sweeten and regulate your stomach; remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and that misery-making gas; take the excess bile from your liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter and constipation poison from the bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your head clear, stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular and make you feel lively and cheerful for months. Don't forget the children.

SUPERINTENDENT DYER Ranks Teacher Next to the Mother

BOSTON, Sept. 20.—Elementary teachers were idealized in a plane next to that of motherhood by Dr. Franklin B. Dyer in his address before the meeting of the elementary teachers of Boston at the English High School auditorium yesterday afternoon. There was a large attendance of kindergarten and primary teachers who also heard praise for their work from Eugene Eliot, the newly-appointed director of instruction at the Art Museum, and Theodore M. Dillaway, who called for co-operation in their efforts to interest children in art.

Dr. Dyer at once won the teachers by his pleasing informality and the keen wit of his introductory remarks which evoked much applause. Then he told of a visit to the public library last Sunday during which he viewed the glorious portrayal of many artists' conceptions of mother and child.

Senator Bourne a Candidate

SALEM, Ore., Sept. 20.—The nomi- nation by petition of United States Sen- ator Jonathan Bourne, Jr., for the United States senatorial candidacy, has been received by Secretary of State Olcott. Senator Bourne was defeated in the republican primary last spring by Den Silling of Portland. He was de- feated for the nomination in the pro- gressive party convention this week by A. E. Clark of Portland. Mr. Bourne made no active canvass for renoma- tion by either party.

NEW TELEPHONE SWITCHBOARD

To be Installed in Appleton St. Building—Costs as Much as the Building

Early in the year 1912 the local division of the New England Telephone & Telegraph company will move into their new quarters on Appleton street and when this time arrives, Lowell may well boast that she possesses if not the best, at least one of the best telephone exchanges in New England.

The new building itself is now practically completed and it would be well to say a word regarding its general structure before describing in detail the arrangements of the interior. It is a magnificently constructed, absolutely fireproof office, the substantial representation of the latest architectural ideas and novelties. At present its height is three stories, and yet from foundation to roof, the remarkable solidity of its underpinning is easily capable of supporting a much greater burden than it is at present called to uphold. For materials with the growth of business which will undoubtedly come, even these new and extensive quarters will of necessity become cramped and it is the intention of the authorities, when ultimately forced to make further enlargements, to increase the capacity of the structure skyward rather than by broadening out. So it is that the demands of present day economic progress are being met by the New England Telephone and Telegraph Co. right here in our own city.

The basement floor will be occupied by the heating apparatus, power engines, dynamos, etc., and the rooms which are set aside for the accommodations of these various departments are most conveniently situated for insuring perfect control of these different vital organs of the plant. There are also toilet rooms for the comfort of employees. It is in the basement, too, that the underground cables, the veritable nerve centers of the system, enter and are concentrated. This is done in a series of various apertures in the floor and walls through which the seemingly innumerable wires come from their underground passages.

THE REBELS WERE DEFEATED

They Were Surprised While Eating at the Ranch—Two Americans Liberated

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Sept. 20.—Despatches regarding the defeat of the rebels at the San Joaquin ranch near Agua Prieta yesterday by federal troops under Col. Obregon show that Obregon's force numbering 182 men, mostly Yaqui Indians, surprised the rebels as they were eating at the telephone the news to Douglas. At nightfall the federals were still pursuing the rebels into the hills.

M. L. Pollard, one of the Americans, reported there were 500 in the band and that Antonio Rojas and Inez Salazar, rebel leaders, were with them. Pollard and three companies were taking horses from Douglas to the El Tigre mines when they were taken prisoners. Obregon's position is believed to be precarious despite his temporary victory unless the 400 federals under Colonels Munoz and Alvarado, somewhere in the vicinity, come to his aid.

WIDOW TO WED

Says She Will Take a Husband in Order to Spite Her Daughter—New York Woman Arrested

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Mary Carney, 15 years old, of No. 2 Vineyard avenue, Yonkers, called a policeman Wednesday and had her mother, Mrs. Hannah Carney, taken to the lockup for threatening to get married "just for spite."

At police headquarters Mary told Lieut. Cahill that Mrs. Carney had put a rope around her neck and was threatening to commit suicide. If her matrimonial plans were criticized, Mrs. Carney replied:

"She hasn't told you all. She's afraid I am going to bring a stepfather into the house. Now I'll marry John Mahoney, not for love, but for spite. Then she'll be sorry."

The lieutenant showed them both out, with advice to go to court if they could not settle their difficulties between themselves.

THE BREWERS

To Elect Officers at Session of the Fifty-second Annual Convention in Boston Today

BOSTON, Sept. 20.—The election of officers was the principal business today before the 100 delegates attending the closing session of the fifty-second annual convention of the United States Brewers association. Reports of various committees were presented.

A million dollars a year awaits the farmers of every grain growing county in the United States in return for more scientific and business like management of the farms, in the opinion of the crop improvement committee of the association. The committee in its report said that by a co-operative farming plan prices for raw material because of the increasing demand for mowing barley and the decreased production because of soil exhaustion and the withdrawal of land from cultivation. The committee proposed that it had established development bureaus for the benefit of the farmers in nearly 300 counties.

The vigilance committee made its annual report on legislation, judicial decisions and political developments of interest to the delegates.

COL. ROOSEVELT

To Spend a Day and a Half in William J. Bryan's Home State, Nebraska

HOLDREDGE, Neb., Sept. 20.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt came in William J. Bryan's home state today for a campaign of a day and a half. He reached Holdredge, his first stop, after an all-night ride from Denver and remained here two hours. He was scheduled to stop at Hastings, Fairmont, Croft and Lincoln on his way to Omaha, where he is to remain all night.

NINETY-SEVEN PERSONS KILLED

In This State as Result of Auto Accidents Since January 1st, 1912

There have been 97 deaths in Massachusetts as the result of automobile accidents since Jan. 1, 1912, as against 63 for the corresponding months of last year.

The statement relative to the number of automobile deaths, as they are termed, was made today by Thomas A. Dolan of the state highway commission. Mr. Dolan investigates automobile deaths and he has just completed his investigation of the accident in Tewksbury, which was responsible for the death of Mr. Carney of Boston. The accident happened on the forenoon of Sept. 1. Mr. Carney was removed to St. John's hospital, where he died as the result of his injuries.

Mr. Dolan says there is nothing for publication as to the result of his investigation. There was only one car concerned and Carney was at the wheel when the car struck the pole, at least it is supposed that while he was not driving the machine prior to the accident he grasped the wheel at the last moment, but not in time to prevent the accident.

His License Revoked

The license of Ingham Mercer, who was driving James Horsfall's car when it struck and killed a little boy in Woburn, has been revoked by the highway commission. In discussing this matter today, Mr. Dolan said that Mercer was operating for hire under an operator's license and that is strictly against the law. In order to operate for hire it is necessary to have a chauffeur's license and Mercer was too young to get a chauffeur's license.

Chauffeurs' Examination Today

Every Friday representatives of the state highway commission come to this city and examine applicants for chauffeur licenses. The examinations are held at city hall and the examiner today was Chauncey G. Hubbard of Waltham. At this season of the year there are very few applicants as compared with the early summer and the class today was a small one.

POSTAL CLERK INDICTED

He is Held on Embezzlement Charge

BOSTON, Sept. 20.—Frank H. Stone, chief clerk at the Arlington Heights postoffice, has been indicted by the federal grand jury for alleged embezzlement and larceny of funds taken when the office was robbed Sept. 2.

Twenty other persons, including five Chinese alleged to be implicated in the opium traffic, were also indicted, making a total of 21 persons who were publicly indicted and nine who were secretly indicted.

The failure of the grand jury to report any public indictment in the case of Francis Vernon Willey, who was arrested on a charge of conspiring with Arthur Saville to bring English immigrants into this country to work at the South Barre woolen mills in violation of the contract labor laws, caused considerable comment.

Among those publicly indicted were John H. Zwicker and James E. Fox of Yarmouth, N. S., and William Blane of Boston, stewards on board the steamship Prince George, who are charged with assisting George B. Tinkham, a customs inspector, while he was endeavoring to enforce customs regulations when the steamer reached Long wharf from Yarmouth Aug. 21.

Thomas Keenan, chief of the Leyland liner Canadian, was indicted on a charge of fraudulently importing an English overcoat for a prominent shoe man of Haverhill.

Harry A. Wright, head of a local detective agency, also was indicted on the charge of harboring George Baum, a deserter from the marine corps. Max and Redden Colyn, farmers at Lakeville, were indicted for operating an alleged illicit brandy still on their farm.

In connection with the recent opium raids of the customs authorities in Boston and New Bedford, Henry Walton and Kim Wing, Queens Sing and Wong Teen of New Bedford were indicted on a charge of manufacturing opium illegally, and Charlie Wong and Chin Chung of Boston were indicted on a charge of concealing and selling opium.

MAJOR F. A. MCNEELEY
Lost His Life by Gas Poisoning

BOSTON, Sept. 20.—Major Frank A. McNeely, a prominent member of the National Guard, was found dead in a room in the Thorndike house at 67 Green street, West End, yesterday, under circumstances which strongly indicate suicide. Death was caused by gas poisoning.

A membership card issued by the Elks' lodge at Albany made identification possible. Relatives of the dead man had been notified and with came to this city to claim the body. An autopsy will be performed this morning in an effort to positively determine whether death was accidental.

McNeely took the room at 1 a. m. It was nine hours later when the escaping gas attracted the attention of the hotel employees.

Major McNeely was born in Akron 35 years ago and had been attached to the adjutant-general's office at Albany for 15 years. He was also secretary of the state armory board. He was single.

MORGAN &amp; CO

Are Planning to Build Office in Wall Street That Will Cost About $5,000,000

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—J. P. Morgan & Co. are planning to tear down the old-time Drexel building at Wall and Broad streets, which has been the home of the Morgan firm for many years, and erect a new structure on the site and that of the adjoining building, which has just been purchased. H. P. Davidson, a partner of Mr. Morgan, said yesterday that he would not add when the new building would be erected.

That the new Morgan building is to be a banking house and not a skyscraper, came as a great surprise to financial and real estate circles.

Ever since J. P. Morgan & Co., early this year, bought out the interest of the Drexel estate in the corner property, it has been taken for granted that some building plan was on foot, but it was also supposed that the improvement of what many regard as the most valuable corner in the city would be in the form of another tall building.

The properties included in the new building site are assessed at $1,320,000, of which $3,570,000 represents land value. Thus it is apparent that with a moderate expenditure for a new building on this site the Morgan banking house will represent an investment of at least $5,000,000.

For Foreign Missions

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—Nearly one-third of a million dollars for foreign missions was received into the treasury of the general conference of Seventh Day Adventists during the past eight months, according to a report to the annual conference meeting here. Of this amount more than $200,000 was donated in free will offerings through what is known as the "Pittman cents a week fund" set aside exclusively for missionary work in countries other than the United States and Canada.

Extensive plans are being outlined by the council for the advancement of the publishing feature of the denomination throughout the world.

UNCLE SAM'S CURRENCY

Much of it is Never Redeemed by Gov't

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—There are millions of dollars of currency outstanding, lost, destroyed or being preserved as souvenirs, which the federal government never will be called to redeem, according to a compilation of figures by the register of the treasury.

This indicates that the government makes a big profit on its issues of paper money.

At the present time $15,232,000 is outstanding of the issue of fractional currency notes during the Civil war familiarly known as "Civil War Notes."

The total issue of these notes was nearly $369,000,000. It is known that many people are saving samples of them as relics and it is probable that very few of the outstanding $15,232,000 ever will be presented for redemption.

Of the nearly $1,000,000,000 worth of gold certificates issued during the Civil war, about $50,000 is still outstanding. There is also outstanding $1,955,000 of the $189,000,000 issue of gold certificates of the series of 1885.

TAFT TO HOT SPRINGS

He Will Leave Beverly Late in October

BEVERLY, Sept. 20.—Plans for President Taft's vacation here were changed today when it became known that the president probably will remain in Beverly only until October 20. He had intended staying at Parramatta until a few days before election and then, closing up his summer home, travel to Cincinnati to vote. According to the new plan, the president will leave Beverly with Mrs. Taft for Hot Springs, Va., late in October. He will vote in Cincinnati and return to Hot Springs for a long stay probably remaining there until a few days before congress convenes in December.

The president had only a few callers on the 19th today. Charles E. Hatfield, republican state chairman of Massachusetts and former Congressman Jacob V. Olcott of New York were two with whom the president expected to discuss politics.

PEARL NECKLACE

Valued at $12,000 Reported to Have Been Lost on a New York Central Train

BOSTON, Sept. 20.—Boston and Chicago detectives are seeking to recover a necklace valued at $12,000, the property of Mrs. Albert A. Sprague, Jr., of Chicago, reported to have been lost while Mrs. Sprague was traveling between Boston and Chicago on a New York Central train.

The costly piece of jewelry, consisting of a string of 59 large sized pearls, was carried by their owner in a chain-mail bag suspended from her neck and concealed beneath her corsage.

When Mrs. Sprague, upon arriving at Chicago discovered that the necklace was missing, she immediately communicated with the railroad officials and the Chicago police.

A search was made for the gems in the parlor car in which Mrs. Sprague rode, but to no avail.

Local officials of the New York Central were appealed to and at once began an investigation.

Naturalization Work

The permanent committee on naturalization which is composed of members of the Pawtucketville Social club, the Centralville Social club and the Citizens Americans club, will hold a meeting in the Pawtucketville Social club rooms in Moody street this evening.

The purpose of the meeting is to look up the names of all the French citizens which are not on the voting list and take means to have these people call at the registration office and have their names placed on the voting list before election day. The committee which was organized some time ago has done considerable work since its inception and the members propose to keep up their good work and help as much as possible to have their people naturalized.

25 CENT "DANDERINE" FOR FALLING HAIR AND DANDRUFF--GROWS HAIR

Don't pay 50 cents for worthless hair tonics-- Use old, reliable, harmless "Danderine"

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy Danderine from any drug store, or hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp. Danderine cures dandruff, itching, and after the first application you will say it was the best hair tonic you ever made. Your hair will grow thicker and its very lustre and luxuriance which has been lost, will be restored. It will become wavy and fluffy if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die--then the hair falls out fast.

A little Danderine tonight--now--anytime--will surely save your hair. Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's scalp.

NEW TRI WILSON IN OHIO

Invades President Taft's Home State and Will Make a Number of Speeches

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 20.—Invading President Taft's home state, Gov. Wilson today was scheduled to open his Ohio campaign with a series of speeches assisted by Congressman J. M. Cox, candidate for governor, and Senator Gore of Oklahoma.

Every minute of Gov. Wilson's stay in Columbus, from the time he arrived at 11:20 until his departure for Akron tomorrow morning, will be spent in making speeches, conferring with lieutenants, organizing workers and giving a reception to the public.

At 1 o'clock Gov. Wilson and Mr. Cox were to address an organization meeting at Memorial hall and at 2 o'clock were to address an additional meeting in a local theatre, under the auspices of State School Commissioner Miller.

At 3:15 o'clock business men and commercial salesmen expected to hear the speakers at the city hall and at 4 o'clock a public reception was to be held at a hotel for the candidates.

Gov. Wilson and Senator Gore and Congressman Cox were to be entertained at dinner at 5 o'clock and at 8:30 o'clock were to head a large parade of

GAVE SHORT WEIGHT

Man Was Ordered to Pay a Fine of $20

BOSTON, Sept. 20.—Judge Ratigan imposed a fine of $20 upon Charles de Lara, a commission merchant, in the superior criminal court, yesterday, after De Lara had been found guilty of giving short weight in selling a barrel of potatoes. The case is the first to reach the superior court of several which the deputies in the department of seals of weights and measures are prosecuting, and it came as a test case before a jury.

De Lara was fined $20 in the lower court after being adjudged guilty by Judge Burke, and he appealed. Julius J. Jeyer presented the case for the weights and measures department. He testified to purchasing a "barrel" of white potatoes from De Lara and finding after the purchase that the barrel weighed only 147 pounds, whereas the statutes say a barrel of white potatoes shall weigh 165 pounds.

When De Lara was called for sentence Judge Ratigan said that he was inclined to impose the heaviest sentence prescribed by law upon dealers who gave short weight, but as the defendant agreed not to appeal imposed only the nominal sentence visited by the lower courts.

ATTACKED BY ELEPHANT

Mail Coach Wrecked and Driver Killed

CALCUTTA, India, Sept. 20.—An attack by a wild elephant on the Mullaiden-Vilankulam mail coach, in the northern province of Ceylon, is reported in advices from Colombo. Appearing unexpectedly from the jungle, the elephant killed the driver with one blow of its trunk and then proceeded to smash the coach against a telegraph pole.

The passengers, who were thrown out of the vehicle, hid themselves in a nearby culvert from which the enraged beast tried in vain to dislodge them. When the animal disappeared into the thicket the frightened travelers climbed a tree where they remained throughout the night.

Beats Train With Auto
WINSTED, Conn., Sept. 20.—Stage Agent Foster, at Litchfield discovered after the 8:15 passenger train left over the Shepaug division yesterday that a woman on the train had left an envelope containing two tickets for Boston, baggage checks, $40 in cash and two drafts in the station.

George J. Smitzer sped in his automobile after the train, overtaking and passing it. When the train steamed into Hantam he boarded it and gave the articles to the surprised owner.

TEWKSBURY COMPLAINS

Because Train Service Was Curtailed

The railroad commissioners gave a hearing yesterday morning on a complaint from Tewksbury against the action of the Boston & Maine railroad in cutting out one train each day between Lawrence and Boston, the result of the discontinuance of the trains being that persons using the Tewksbury Centre station, and an effort will be made to adjust the time-table as to make this possible.

The board suggested to the company that at least one of the trains operating in each direction between Boston and the Almont station in Tewksbury be routed through the Tewksbury Centre station, and an effort will be made to adjust the time-table as to make this possible.

A PROBATION SENTENCE

Man Must Report Every Sunday Morning

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Every Sunday morning for seven years to come Erman Dunker must make a pilgrimage to the police court and report to a probation officer. There had not been even a ripple of discord in the Dunker home in Green Point for the 40 years the couple had lived together, until last Sunday when Dunker developed a "crunch" and discharged a revolver at his surprised spouse. Then she had him arrested. The old man was so repentant when arraigned that the judge decided on the period of probation. Dunker was bewildered at the long term.

"But I am already an old man and I shall die before the time is up, judge," he indignantly remonstrated. "Well, if you do you will not be punished for breaking your parole," the judge assured him.

MADE A CONTRACT

Couple Want Greatest Personal Liberty and Agree to Share All Expenses and Earn Separate Livelihood

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 20.—In conformity to her part of a prenuptial contract that caused comment from all sections of the country, Mrs. Carolyn Washburne, until a few days ago Miss Katherine Chandler, obtained a position with the firm by which her husband is employed. The company publishes a magazine and Mrs. Washburne will do the illustrating for it.

A part of the prenuptial contract which as a whole provided for the greatest personal liberty on the part of husband and wife, specified that each should earn an individual livelihood and should share the expenses of maintaining a home and of caring for children, should any result from the marriage.

The accounts of my mother being prestrated over my action are merely trash," said Mrs. Washburne. "I have received several telegrams of congratulation and commendation from many mothers since my marriage."

THE ASTOR BABY

BERNARDSVILLE, N. J., Sept. 20.—Mrs. John Jacob Astor and her million-dollar baby are here for a week's outing. Both are in the best of health, it is declared.

The baby had his first photograph taken before leaving New York for this place. Only four copies of the picture will be printed, one for his grandparents, one for his mother, one for Vincent Astor, and one to be retained by the photographer. This infant was a month old on September 1.

WORLD'S SERIES

Is To Begin On Monday, October 7, as Agreed Upon By the National Commission

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—The world's series baseball games are to begin on Monday, October 7. This date is said to have been tentatively agreed upon by the National commission, which meets here next Wednesday to draft the plans for the games. The date for the opening of the series was based on the assumption that the New York Nationals and the Boston Americans would win the pennants in their respective leagues.

The Boston club has already won the pennant and the Giants expect to win within the next ten days. The playing season of the Boston Red Sox and the New York Giants closes on October 5 and one day's rest before the big games is deemed sufficient. An early start of the series is desired as the commission desires to take advantage of good weather.

It is learned that the commission has practically decided to play two consecutive days in one city. The club owners will toss a coin to determine what city shall have the opening games.

Grand Circuit Meet

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 20.—Two full days behind the schedule because of rain and mud, prospects today were that some of the week's grand circuit races would have to be declared off. The meeting, originally intended to close today, has been extended to include Saturday.

Yesterday's downpour left the track in such condition that it was not certain the horses could be called out at 12:30, the time set for racing to begin.

Latest music, Fri. eve., Billerica.

THIRTEEN DRIVERS IN AUTO RACE

Start in Vanderbilt Cup Race at Milwaukee on a Dangerous Course

WADWATOSA RACE COURSE, MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 20.—Thirteen drivers with their mechanics and cars, on what some of them declared to be a dangerous course, prepared this morning to start in the first two races of the three days' Vanderbilt cup race meeting given by the Milwaukee Automobile Dealers' association. A thunder storm about 5 o'clock this morning followed by cloudy weather indicated a possibility of further postponement, although the officials hope to race despatched. Five of the entrants were scheduled to drive 20 laps or 17 1/2 miles with lightweight cars for the Wisconsin challenge cup and $1875 in cash. Eight of the 13 entered for the blue ribbon trophy at 218 1-5 miles or 25 laps, with cash prizes totalling $1875 offered to the first four starters to finish. The cars in the blue ribbon race were only slightly larger than those in the Wisconsin event.

The Wisconsin race stipulations called for cars of 161 to 250 cubic inches piston displacement while in the blue ribbon race the cars were measured for a piston displacement of 231 to 300 cubic inches.

Both races to be run off simultaneously, the cars being started at 3:22 intervals.

The drivers who lined up for these two races, awaiting noon, the hour set for the start were:

Wisconsin trophy: Kulick, Ford car; Snyder, Mason; Mason, Mason; Fisher, J. M. F.; Endicott, Mason. Blue ribbon trophy: Nikrent, Case car; Monson, Borgdell; Wishart, Mercer; Hastings, Falcar; Roberts, Mason; Pullen, Mercer; Trussell, Falcar; Hughes, Mercer.

Many of the drivers declared the course, only completed by day and night effort, after one postponement of the program was extremely dangerous. Officials and promoters of the race meeting were equally insistent that the track was safe.

The drivers said the roadway, to begin with, was too narrow and that the course was soft and liable to slide or give way at the edges near sharp cuts or ditches at the roadside.

The course was patrolled by several companies of Wisconsin militia and a large corps of special and city police. Captain William Mehl of the militia arrived to keep the crowds at a safe distance in the vicinity of the four sharp turns.

Arguments Postponed

LAWRENCE, Sept. 20.—Arguments which were to be presented in superior criminal court here today before Judge Quinn on the motion for a bill of particulars filed by counsel for Joseph J. Ettor and Arturo Giovannitti, leaders of the local textile strike who are awaiting trial on a charge of being accessories to murder, were postponed until next Monday at Salem.

THE FEAST OF YUM KIPPUR

Is Being Observed Today by All the Local Hebrew Societies

The 500 or more Jewish families in this city will gather in the various synagogues at about five o'clock this afternoon to open the ceremonies in the observance of the feast of the Yum Kippur.

Rabbi Wolfson, who is at the head of all the synagogues in Lowell will begin the services in the Howard street place of worship. This feast will end at sundown tomorrow evening. During the whole time, commencing at 5 o'clock tonight the strict fasting is compulsory and no food or drink may pass the lips of these people, nor are they allowed to smoke or indulge in any other enjoyment or pleasure.

The Yum Kippur means in our language the day of repentance and forgiveness and it is the belief of the Jews that during this period, all the sins which they have committed in the year past will be forgiven, provided, of course, they are truly repentant.

The synagogues on MacIntyre and Howard streets will be crowded at sunset today with men, women and children seeking forgiveness for their offenses. The service opens with public prayer led by men chosen from the different societies and the ancient Hebrew chants will be sung and sermons preached by leaders. Many of the people will remain in the edifices throughout the whole night and all day tomorrow, in constant prayer and worship. This is one of the most widely observed feasts in the Jewish calendar and these services are held on this day universally over the whole earth wherever Hebrews dwell. At 7:20 this evening, those who so desire may retire to their homes and remain there in rest until 5 o'clock tomorrow morning when all will once more assemble at the synagogues to remain there the whole day.

Rabbi Wolfson to Preach

Tonight Rabbi Wolfson will preach at the Howard street synagogue and will dwell on the necessity of true repentance in order to obtain forgiveness, reviewing the year and inciting vows on the part of the people to do better in the future. Tomorrow he will speak in one of the other societies and will lead the public prayer. During this time these people also pray for spiritual and worldly benefits, such as health, prosperity and happiness. Although the blowing of the Shofar is not among the requirements of the service of this feast, nevertheless tomorrow evening at the closing it will be sounded once to make the people aware of the fact that the holy period is over and that they may now partake of food and drink.

Feast of Tabernacles

On next Wednesday the Jews about the city will begin the celebration of the Feast of the Tabernacles, which is a remembrance of the days when the Jewish people started on their journey from Egypt to Palestine, spending the night in tents. Today those of the Hebrew faith who can afford to do so are required to build roofless structures and spend eight days dwelling in these, or at least taking their meals in them.

The places of business about Lowell will be closed tonight and all day tomorrow and also on Thursday and Friday and Saturday of next week, when the feast of the tabernacles will be observed. This feast is also an important one as it is in reality a Thanksgiving to God for his goodness to them.

BOYS IN POLICE COURT

Charged With Obstructing Gorham Street

William Egan was arraigned in court this morning on a complaint charging him with unlawfully obstructing a street in violation of a city ordinance. Thomas Warburton, aged 15 years, was summoned into court, but inasmuch as he was not of age his case was continued until next Friday, when he will be brought before the juvenile session.

The first witness for the government was Patrolman Thomas H. Haslin, who testified that one week ago Sunday he saw Egan and others at the corner of Gorham and Dix streets. He said that the boys were shooting craps. He saw them at 10:35 o'clock in the morning and later saw them at 11:10 and chased them away, the boys running through the street on the approach of the officer. At 5:05 o'clock in the afternoon the defendant was in the street.

Questioned by Deputy Hugh Downey, Patrolman Haslin said that he had noticed the boys shooting craps on various occasions, but owing to their age he did not want to place them under arrest. He said that he had notified them that they should not block the street, but they did not heed his warning.

The witness explained that there has been a gang of boys who have been in the habit of loitering about Gorham street at the corner of Dix street, which is directly opposite Moore street and that at times he had noticed that pedestrians passing through the street had to walk into the middle of the road in order to avoid them.

Patrolman Owen J. Tansey corroborated a portion of the testimony of Patrolman Haslin and although he did not see the boys shooting craps, he testified to seeing them blockading the sidewalk.

The government rested its case at this point.

The only witness for the defense was Egan. He very frankly admitted that he shot craps on different days, but denied that he was in the game which was being played a week ago Sunday. He also admitted that he visited the South common.

At the conclusion of the testimony Judge Enright ordered the defendant to pay a fine of $3.

Charged With Larceny

Paul Sirois and John Drolette were charged with the larceny of 300 pounds of lead pipe from the property of Arthur Montemman. It is alleged that they ripped the pipe off a building. At the request of the counsel for the defense the case was continued until Sept. 25th.

Drunken Offenders

William Green and Thomas F. Sheehan were charged with drunkenness. Each entered a plea of guilty and fines of $6 were imposed. Three first offenders were fined $2 each and several simple drunks were released before the opening of court.

There Was No Violence

ENGINEER FROM BOSTON LOST

Cut Off on Mt. Washington by Dense Cloud—No Trace of Him After 36 Hours Search

FABYAN, N. H., Sept. 20.—Latest of the victims of Mt. Washington, it is feared, is John M. Keenan, a young civil engineer in the employ of the Boston & Maine railroad, supposed to be a resident of Charlestown, Mass. Lost yesterday morning about 11 o'clock, a search of 36 hours has disclosed no trace of him.

Mr. Keenan was a member of a party from the railroad's engineering department surveying the route for the proposed electric scenic railway up the mountain. A new man, he had been at work only a few days and was not at all familiar with the mountains.

Wednesday morning he was with a party of surveyors on the cone of the mountain near the Lake of the Clouds. He was holding a line rod and was standing at some considerable distance from the others of the party.

They were at cloud level and suddenly a thick cloud rolled in and enveloped them, so that the others could not see Keenan. Thinking that he might be frightened, they told him to remain where he was until the others came up, but when they reached the spot he was not to be found.

Hoping to attract his attention, the other surveyors shouted and fired revolver shots, but without result.

It is supposed that in his fright when the cloud enveloped him and cut off the others from his sight, Keenan disregarded directions and tried to find his companion, but started in the wrong direction and was lost.

The wind was blowing a gale of over 50 miles an hour and the temperature was only 10 degrees, and Keenan, who was 23 years old, may have perished of exhaustion. It is possible, too, that in the cloud-mist he fell and was stunned or too badly injured to move.

Up to last night, although every effort has been made to find him, it has been fruitless. As soon as he was missed, messages were sent to various parts of the mountain, and everyone was put on the watch, but no one has reported seeing him.

All Wednesday night the bell on the summit was kept ringing, and the steam whistle at the base was blown at frequent intervals, in hope of attracting his attention, and at 5 o'clock yesterday morning a party of 20 set out after him. All day they searched the mountain, but without result.

Today a thorough search of the whole mountain range will be made by the full railroad engineering corps here and by all the available employees of the Mt. Washington railway, in the hope of finding him either dead or alive.

THE HIGH SCHOOL

People of Colebrook, New Hampshire, Think That They Have Solved the Problem

How can the high school best meet the needs of the community? The people of Colebrook, N. H., think they have solved the problem. The experiment is interestingly described in a bulletin just issued for free distribution by the United States bureau of education.

Colebrook academy is located in a town of about 200 population in northern New Hampshire. Starting in the first third of the century as a private school it later became part of the public system of education. For years it has successfully done the work expected of a high school in the traditional branches of the New England school. Now it is trying to do something more. Without lowering its standards, without ceasing to furnish the training necessary for those going into the professions, it is endeavoring to provide an adaptive education for the great mass of boys and girls who ought to remain and grow up with the country. It is seeking, in other words, to readjust itself to the needs of the particular community in which it is. Just what this readjustment means may be seen from the following four significant additions to the school plant: the greenhouse, the dairy laboratory, the domestic arts department, and the workshop, including a carpenter and blacksmith shop. Complete courses are given in agriculture and domestic science. Colebrook is the centre of a rural district, and these are the vital interests of a large part of the population.

Colebrook academy does not propose to become a vocational school. It remains a general high school. The courses in agriculture and domestic science exist side by side with thorough courses in the traditional high school subjects, as well as the commercial branches. "Its purpose is not primarily to make good farmers, or skilled mechanics, or professional housekeepers," says Hon. H. C. Morrison, state superintendent of New Hampshire. "The primary object is the education of the boy and girl to become a sincere and efficient and hap-

BRAKEMAN WAS KILLED

He Dropped Off an Elevated Train

BOSTON, Sept. 20.—James I. Vanbusirk, an Elevated brakeman, who lived at the Hotel Dearborn, 257 Dudley street, was killed yesterday afternoon by falling on the third rail as his train drew into the State street station at Atlantic avenue.

The train, bound from Sullivan sq. at 4:45 for Dudley street, under charge of guard Guy Gardner of Somerville and Motorman Owen, approached the State street station at 5 o'clock. Vanbusirk had been standing between the fourth and fifth cars. He evidently reached down toward the levers which control the car doors and lost his balance.

The special officer at State street was notified by trainmen who had seen their comrade fall. He sent for an ambulance and had the electric current turned off in the loop from Beach street to Battery street. Then the trainmen went and secured Vanbusirk's body. He had struck beside the wheels, but the body was disfigured by contact with the "live" rail.

Service on the Atlantic avenue loop was tied up about a quarter of an hour by the accident.

Vanbusirk was about 23 years old. He had lived at the Hotel Dearborn about five weeks. He secured employment with the railroad company during the recent strike.

AN AGREEMENT REACHED

Case Was in Court for Thirty-Six Years

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—Prospect of an early settlement of the 36-year-old contest before the supreme court of the United States between the Goulds and Thomas A. Edison, the inventor, and others, over telegraph patents, has revived interest in one of the big telegraph schemes of the last decade.

The case has been brought to an issue by a motion for the court to dismiss the case from its calendar.

The suit is based on 32 automatic telegraph patents Edison was granted in the early '70s. Edison disposed of two-thirds of his interest in the patents to George Harrington of Washington, with authority to assign his remaining third interest. About that time Jay Gould, owner of much of the stock of the Atlantic & Pacific Telegraph Co., entered into negotiations with Harrington to buy the automatic system.

Josiah G. Reiff completed the negotiations with Gould. They signed a memorandum whereby the Gould company was to buy the patents, and the automatic interests were to be given $1,000,000 stock in the Gould company. An assignment of the patents was made to Gould.

About this assignment the present litigation has centered. The Goulds claim that it passed the absolute title to the patents and that the Atlantic & Pacific Company, which received them in another assignment from Gould, was not infringing the patents. On the other hand, it is claimed, the assignment to Gould was on condition that the automatic interests be given the $4,000,000 stock, and as the condition had never been performed, Gould had no title to the patents.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Murphy
and Family of Lowell Take
Up Residence There

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Murphy and family, who for the past several years have resided in this city, left today for Adamsdale, Mass., where they are to take up permanent residence. The Murphy family came to Lowell from Providence, R. I., Mr. Murphy coming to act as assistant overseer of the finishing department at the Lowell Bleachery. They first located in upper Gorham street, taking up their residence in the old Fair Grounds building. While there Mr. Murphy also acted as caretaker of the grounds. When the fair property was disposed of, Mr. Murphy opened a store at the corner of Manchester and Gorham streets, where a very lucrative business was conducted, Mrs. Murphy taking charge of the store. About one year ago, the family moved to 72 Maple street, where they have since resided. Though in Lowell but a comparatively short time, Mr. and Mrs. Murphy made a number of friends, and all regret their departure from this city. In the Bleachery where Mr. Murphy was employed during his stay in the city, he was well liked by all, and the esteem in which he is held by his fellow employees was attested last evening, when upon completing his duties there all assembled around him, and presented him a large purse of gold. The presentation address was delivered by John McLaughlin, who told of the great regret they all felt in his departure for another field, and said that all would ever remember his many kind acts. He said that he saved the contents of all when he extended him the good wishes of not only his fellow employees but all connected with the company who had occasion to meet the popular "Dick" Mr. Murphy in accepting the gift thanked all, and said that it came to him as a complete surprise. He said that he was well pleased with the people and

to Beauty-Seekers

C. M. P.: The neck should receive similar attention to that given the complexion, so color and texture of skin will be the same. It will greatly help and a white face give a discordant effect. I advise using for both neck and complexion, the treatment recommended to you. First, soap washing, if you would get rid of the spots between the eyes. The last application for such lines, and all wrinkles, is a solution of powdered alum, 1 ounce, dissolved in which wash by pint. Rub the face in this daily until entirely relieved.

Monday: You hardly need such a list of remedies as you mention. Ordinary medicinal ways will help you more than all the rest. It will greatly help and a white face give a discordant effect. It was voted to hold an open meeting in connection with the next regular meeting on Oct. 2, at which time there will be a first class entertainment free of charge. At the conclusion of last night's exercises which was enjoyed by the members until a late hour.

THE BANCROFT WILL

Was Allowed by the Probate Court

WORCESTER, Sept. 20.—After a hearing in probate court yesterday, Judge Frederick B. Chamberlain announced that he would allow the will of Andrew J. Bancroft of Lancaster over the protest of William L. Bancroft, a son of testator, who was given a bequest of only $500 from an estate of $70,000.

The remainder of the estate is given in larger shares to the contestant's sister, Martha, who is the housewife and $10,000 in cash, besides her regular share, and to his brothers, Edwin Bancroft, Geo. Bancroft and Chas. Bancroft, all of whom are lawyers in and around Boston.

The will makes the bequest of $500 to William with the specific statement that the amount is made small because William and his wife were beneficiaries of the entire estate of their aunt, Miss Sabrina Bancroft. William based his contest of his father's will on the claim that his sister, Martha, exercised undue influence on their father in the making of his will. He testified yesterday that his sister, Martha, was considered toward him because their aunt had left some $10,000 to him and his wife. He testified his sister showed anger and charged that his wife, Agnes, had influenced the aunt or the latter's will would never have been made as it was.

He testified that after the provisions of the aunt's will became known, his sister prevented him for months having any private conversation with his father, and the attitude of his brother toward him also became cold.

Miss Martha Bancroft, sister of the contestant, denied that she had used any undue influence on her father in making his will. She testified she has taught school in Lancaster 16 years and boarded at home. She gave up teaching two years ago and devoted all her time to the care of the family home, and she took special care of her father during his last illness up to the time of his death a few months ago. She said she did not use any influence in favor of her other brothers or against William. Judge Chamberlain said the contestant had failed to show that the sister had exercised any undue influence, and announced that he would allow the will.

THE LOCAL OWLS

Held a Very Interesting Meeting Last Evening and Transacted Considerable Business

The hood! hood! of the Owl was very much in evidence last night when several hundred of the "birds" flew to their nest in Elks hall, Middle street, and took possession of every available roost. Big-eyed, C. W. Richards occupied the main roost and with great wisdom flapped his wings, opened wide his great eyes and called the birds to order.

Every bird present looked to the "great roost" and paid the closest attention when the "big owl" announced from the "great perch" that a special dispensation had been granted by the "wise owl," Deputy Supreme President King of the New England states, and a big class initiation will take place in the Lowell nest at their second meeting which will be Thursday evening, Oct. 17.

The special business of last evening's meeting was the second reading and final action upon the amendments to the by-laws, recommended by the special committee on revision, and which were read at the August meeting of the nest.

The committee on revision were most thorough in their work. They held many meetings and carefully considered every section. In the code of by-laws, and submitted 27 amendments for the nest's consideration.

Some of the changes suggested by the committee seemed most radical to many of the members and much discussion was brought out. Nearly all were passed, however, and the Lowell nest has practically a new set of the most up-to-date by-laws for its direction and government.

President B. J. Powers, speaking for the "Home Nest," stated that the Order of Owls is not yet eight years old, and according to statistics of fraternal organizations published on pages 538-540 and 541 of the New York World almanac for 1912 the order of Owls has today 1712 lodges and during the year ending June 30, 1912 has made a net gain of 362 nests or lodges, and during the past 110 days ending Sept. 1, 1912 the Owls have instituted 118 lodges.

Brother Powers spoke interestingly of the splendid work that is being done by the order throughout the Atlantic states, and read several paragraphs from "The Owl," the official magazine of the order, and brought out

ARE DANGEROUS

Nine-tenths of All Stomach Trouble Said to Be Due to Acidity

A Physician's Advice on Cause and Cure

A famous physician whose successful researches into the cause and cure of stomach and intestinal diseases have earned for him an international reputation, said in a recent lecture that nearly all intestinal troubles, as well as many diseases of the vital organs, were directly traceable to a deranged condition of the stomach, which in turn was due nine times out of ten to excessive acidity, commonly termed sour stomach or heart burn, which not only irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach, but also set up gastritis and stomach ulcers. It is interesting to know, as he pointed out, that the most patent medicines as well as of medical treatment for the stomach, stating that he and his colleagues have secured remarkable results by the use of ordinary bisulphate macerate, which, by neutralizing the acidity of the food, removes the source of the trouble. He contends that it is as foolish to treat the stomach itself as it would be for a man who stepped on a tack to rub moving the tack. Remove the tack and the foot will heal. Just so—neutralize the acid and stomach troubles will disappear. Irritating medicines and medical treatments are useless so long as the cause of the stomach remains acid. Remove the acidity, and there will be no need for medicine—the irritated lining of the stomach will heal itself. Suffering from acidity, sour stomach or heart burn should get a small bottle of bisulphate macerate from their druggist, and take half a teaspoonful in a quart of a glass of hot or cold water after meals, repeating in fifteen minutes, if necessary, this being the method the doctor has found most efficacious in all cases.

SUBSTANTIAL RELIEF
FROM HEMORRHOIDS

A SCIENTIFIC HOSPITAL HOME TREATMENT

Seldom can any prescribed remedy be altogether effective unless the general health of the patient is normal. In some cases, therefore, constitutional treatment is necessary, in such cases that one may obtain the most satisfactory results.

The English Hemorrhoid Treatment recognizes this fact and has provided this Constitutional Treatment in its Tablets.

The English Hemorrhoid Treatment is a standard proprietary medicine, the formula is on each box.

The English Hemorrhoid Treatment is for sale and is distinctly recommended by over 15 druggists in Lowell. The English Hemorrhoid Treatment is fully described in a booklet, which store in Lowell, or by writing direct to English Pharmaceutical Laboratories, Inc., 151 Broadway, New York. It is an excellent treatise on the subject and should be read by all who are afflicted. Make no mistake! Take no substitute! Ask your druggist! Ask your doctor!

CARLISLE FARMER IS BEATEN

He Was Held Up and Robbed by
Three Men in Bedford
Last Night

BELFORD, Sept. 20.—Eugene Mayberry of Carlisle, a farmer, who was returning from the Boston market on his one-horse market wagon, was held up, beaten and robbed in this town at 9 o'clock last night by three men. Mayberry gave the highwaymen such a desperate battle that they were glad to flee after they had obtained but a few dollars in silver, not being able to get possession of Mayberry's roll of currency.

The attack was made right in front of Lexington Park on Bedford street. One of the men stepped into the road and stopped Mayberry's horse and asked him about the road to Lexington. The other two men got on the wagon and began to beat Mayberry. One used a club and the other his fists. Mayberry returned some severe blows and after the two robbers had seized his silver from his pockets they were left to get off the wagon and join the third man in a fight into the woods. Mayberry then whipped up his horse and came to the house of Chief of Police Kelley and reported the matter. Chief Kelley notified Chief Franks of Lexington and Chief Urquhart of Arlington, and immediately a large force of men were sent out scouring the country for the robbers.

It was learned that three men, probably the highwaymen, called at the farmhouse of Davis Fitch about 200 yards beyond the scene of the holdup. It was at 5 o'clock last night and asked for drinking water which was given them. It was fortunate for Mayberry that an automobile party came along at the time of the attack and the members of that party frightened the highwaymen away. Mayberry went on his way home to his farm in Carlisle. His injuries are not serious.

DUTY OF DEMOCRATS IN THE PRIMARIES

With the approach of the primaries which will be held next Tuesday, it is important that the democrats of Lowell prepare to make the most of their opportunities at the polls. It will be their first duty to vote for the strongest candidates on the ballot.

The work of the popular primary is fundamental, and a mistake made there cannot be corrected on election day. If a weak candidate be nominated, he will simply go down in defeat before his republican opponent. This is a matter on which every voter should exercise good judgment. It is utterly useless to vote for a candidate who will have no chance of election. A great many citizens are inclined to vote for personal friends and acquaintances, disregarding wholly what should be done for the good of the party which in this particular case is the main consideration.

This is a presidential year, and not for the last twenty-five years has a better prospect of victory presented itself to the democrats of the nation. It is expected that on account of the disruption of the republican party the democrats will secure a national triumph, but they cannot do this without the united and harmonious action of the democrats throughout the country.

The state of Massachusetts should go democratic this year, and will in all probability be carried by the democratic nominee for governor provided the right candidate be named. There will also be a greater number of congressmen than usual elected this year if the democrats do their duty, that is, if they exercise reasonable judgment in the selection of candidates who can be elected; but if they throw their votes away upon men who, if nominated, would have no chance of election, then the opportunity will be lost.

There is no reason why under such favorable conditions the republican majority of the fifth congressional district should not be wiped out by the democratic candidate. If the democrats nominate a strong man there will be no doubt as to the result. It is the duty of every voter, therefore, to exercise his best judgment in helping to select the candidate who will be most likely to secure a victory at the polls. This is a simple matter to determine, and if a wrong decision be made the chance of victory on election day will be thrown away.

In the representative and other contests the same rule applies. If the democrats want to win they must put up their strongest men; they must nominate men who will properly represent them, who will fight for democratic principles, who will render intelligent service to their constituents, and who can be relied upon not to sell them out when any corporation comes around soliciting votes to carry its measures against the interests of the masses.

The delegation sent to the legislature from Lowell should be creditable to the city, it should be made up of bright, honest and intelligent men of affairs who will act with due discretion upon the measures that come before them, and who will at all times stand for democratic principles and democratic candidates. The time is not far distant when the Massachusetts legislature may send a democrat to the United States senate. For that reason it is important that a strong candidate be put up in every representative and senatorial district so that no point of advantage may be lost.

It is important also that every voter go to the polls at the primary elections so as to make the nominations as expressive as possible of the will of the people. Where the vote of the primaries is small candidates may be nominated who cannot be elected. This is one great reason why it is essential to have the voters come out in full force. The voter who assists in nominating a candidate at the primaries as a rule will endeavor to work for his election at the polls. Therefore, it is the duty of every candidate and of every democrat to assist in getting the voters to the polls next Tuesday so that after the primaries there may be no criticisms of the nominations made.

MAJOR O'DONNELL COMMENDS THE CHARTER

Mayor O'Donnell's address delivered before the League of American Municipalities at Buffalo, N. Y., did not overstate the merits of the charter in the least. Owing to the fact that the charter has been in force but eight months, it would seem ridiculous for his Honor to come out with unqualified praise of it. The merits of the charter must be judged by the results.

The mayor is quite right in asserting that the new charter is superior to the old; that under its provisions the city's business is done far more systematically and more carefully than under the old. All this is true, but this does not fully express the character of the change that has taken place. The charter is not very specific in regard to business methods and it devolved upon the new board to supply by ordinance in this respect what the charter lacked.

This is done in the recommendations of Expert Rev. most of which were adopted recently by the municipal council. The charter cannot prevent bad men making a mess of things, although it provides the recall and referendum for relief in such cases. The recall has not yet been invoked, but it is the only weapon by which the people can defend themselves against unfaithful or incompetent officials.

As Mayor O'Donnell suggests, it is too soon to estimate the financial results of the new charter; but he claims that the first year will show a saving of $50,000. His Honor put the merits of the charter and its application thus far as succinctly as possible when he said:

"The present administration is laying a foundation of economy and applied business methods which will redound to the material benefit of every taxpayer and to the honor and credit of the city."

Exception might be taken to this broad statement at least in reference to certain departments, yet it is an undisputed fact that the first year under the new charter encountered difficulties that have been disposed of in a manner that will help all succeeding boards.

MUD-SLINGING TACTICS

When any candidate seeking a democratic nomination adopts tactics calculated to split up his party so that it cannot elect any candidate, then it is fair to assume that his motive is not an honest one. The democratic candidate who plays into the hands of the opposition by splitting his own party and furnishing it with ammunition against a possible democratic nominee, is a party wrecker who, seeing that he cannot be elected himself, tries to prevent the election of the party nominee. What is this but party treachery? If a candidate begins to sling mud at his rival, the latter, if he wishes to descend to such tactics, has a right to do the same. That is how dirty fights are started and how party victories are lost. The man who starts the mud-slinging is responsible for the subsequent results.

IMPORTANT SCHOOL MATTERS

The conference of Supt. Molloy with the grammar masters called for today should consider the matter of lessening the number of truants and the equally important one of doing away with the look-alike system of annual promotions. There should be no retardation anywhere, and something should be done for backward pupils to prevent their falling so far behind that they become discouraged and want to stop going to school. Some of the grammar schools have an arrangement that in a measure answers this purpose; but in others the old system is still in full force.

The new standard regulations requiring every steamer to provide lifeboats for all passengers is objected to by some of the coastwise steamers. It is time they took this reasonable precaution for safety in case of explosion, collision or other serious accident.

Seen and Heard

Another holiday is on the way, Columbus day next month.

Only one more Thursday half-holiday.

Contractor Canlon has seen to it that he will not be bothered by rubber-necks while constructing the comfort station for the new street car line. He has fenced in the street and the army of unemployed who delight to watch others work and tell them how to do their work will be barred out. The fencing in of the street also may serve in the capacity of a successful precautionary measure if any blustering is to be done.

Supt. Dowd of the Chelmsford street hospital is rejoicing over a particularly fine corn crop.

Commissioner Cummings evidently believes in starting the new superintendent of schools amid congenial surroundings for he is about to repaint the offices of the superintendent and the school committee rooms.

Some one should have petitioned for an injunction restraining the man who made the Sept. 15 rule on straw hats from carrying his rule into effect. Oct. 1 is early enough to abandon the summer lid, especially with the weather as it was yesterday.

"In the good old Indian summer time."

"You claim that the wheel of the defendant's car passed over your stomach," said the defendant's attorney to the plaintiff on the stand. "Yet here is your open-face watch which you testify to having carried in your vest pocket at the time, and the crystal isn't even cracked. How do you account for that?"

"Why," said the plaintiff, "the car was going so fast there wasn't time for the crystal to break, sir."

"One time," said William H. McElroy, "the report was circulated in a small town that Jim Smith had married for the fourth time. It caused a great deal of comment among his neighbors, one of whom said:

"Well, anyhow, it demonstrates the truth of an old saying."

"How do you make that out?" he was asked.

"The triumph of faith over experience."

AS TO LOVE

'Tis said that love when all is done,
Is but "two hearts" that beat as one.
But that's not true as I have found.
When love to visit me comes round,
For as he enters in my door,
He makes one heart beat like a score,
or more!

If I were teaching here at school,
And to define it I were asked,
That 'tis an element by no means cool,
That comes our way,
Both night and day,
Unthought, unasked,
And as a rule,
Makes man a hero or a fool,
And best of all it is so rich
He don't care which!

How shall I know him when I meet
Fate's lover? The answer is complete,
All ready to my hand, sunshine or storm.
The symptoms are—heart overcast,
A shivering spine and truly Arctic feet!

How tell one's love? As it were well if so you rest beneath its spell
To let it gold
Remain untold.

For love's a special kind of pain
That soon or late will tell itself.
Yet, if it must be told, why, then,
In trust it not to tongue or pen.

The better plan, O, lover, faint but true,
Is just to let your two eyes speak for you.

—John Kendrick Bangs.

Judge Quinn Gives Notice in Haverhill Case

LAWRENCE, Sep. 20.—In the superior court yesterday Judge John F. Quinn, in sentencing a Haverhill defendant on the charge of assault committed in connection with a labor disturbance in that city, expressed himself in no uncertain terms regarding the use of violence in attempting to gain advantages in industrial differences. He said that foreigners coming to this country must realize that they are bound to respect the law and preserve peace and order.

The defendant was Charles Peters, who was charged with assault with a dangerous weapon on David Leahy, Judge Quinn sentenced the defendant to three months in the house of correction.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

Lowell Opera House

Have you seen that joyous little play "The Fortune Hunter"? It is being played at the Opera House every night this week with a bargain matinee Saturday afternoon. It is about a ne'er-do-well young fellow who had failed at every job since he left college. When he is ready to give up and go to some little village, hire out as a clerk, he awfully steady, hitch up with the best church and go to all the meetings, make the most of the social chances, and finally marry the richest girl in town.

HONEY BOY MINSTRELS

There is a lively interest in the coming of the "Honey Boy Minstrels" at the Opera House next Sunday afternoon and evening. The "Honey Boys" as they term themselves number about 25 local young men with good singing voices and have arranged an excellent program of vocal and instrumental selections. Among the soloists to be heard are Chas. Gordon, Andrew Doyle, James Shugrue, Richard Donoghue, Paul Coleman, Ed. Handley, Guy Johnson, Cleveland Nobles, John Wilby and Arthur Goring. John Hanson will be heard in zither selections and Hans Bories will play a number of violin solos. In addition to the appearance of the "Honey Boys" there will be five reels of pictures. The prices will remain the same, five and ten cents with reserved seats at 20 cents. Seats now on sale.

"A NIGHT OUT"

On Monday night at the Opera House Miss Robson appears in the delightful comedy, "A Night Out." It can be truthfully said that no more wholesome and thoroughly enjoyable play has ever been offered to theatre-goers and its highly witty and snappy dialogue, its many side-splitting comedy situations have furnished untold amusement and pleasure for theatre-goers. The play is full of novel situations, delightful fun and just a touch of pathos that gives one a chance to get ready for the laugh that is sure to follow. Those who do not see her miss one of the theatrical hits of the year.

"THE MILLION"

Laughter, just wholesome, hearty and tumultuous laughter, is the keynote of "The Million," the farce from the French of MM. Berr and Guillemand which Henry W. Savage will offer at the Opera House next Tuesday night with the original New York company of well-known players. No appeal is made to the intellect. The theatre-goer is merely invited "to make himself comfortable, keep his eyes and ears open and laugh himself into a popularly known and recognized state of mind." The play is a succession of who's uncontrolled mirth may lead to serious consequences. Further than that, it is only necessary to say that "The Million" is declared to be on the same plane as "Excuse Me" the farce that Mr. Savage presented so happily in this city last season.

Merriam Theatre

Tomorrow afternoon at the matinee

The Great Rafah will give private readings to all who so desire. His is an act which has created widespread interest and aside from the many other pleasing features on the bill is an offering alone worth the price of admission.

For the Sunday concert a seven act bill has been arranged and for those who have never seen a theatrical rehearsal Manager Carroll is going to open the theatre at 1.30 to give all who may wish an opportunity of seeing a rehearsal of everything that is as regularly carried out.

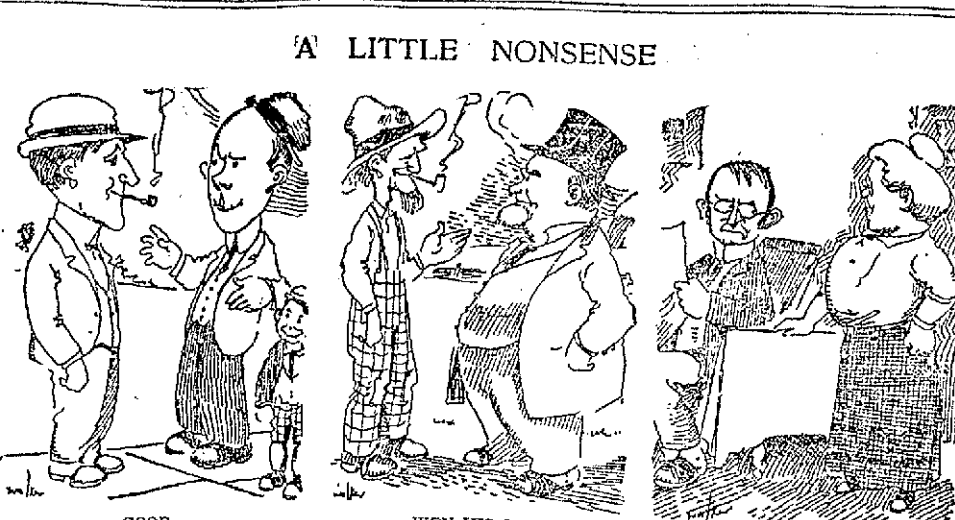

Announcement is made that one of the many features on next week's bill is Miss Marie Horton and company of players. In an emotional and dramatic "The Price Paid," also that on the same bill are to be the three Donatelli, direct from the New York Hippodrome. Performances are continuous from 1 until 10.30. Don't forget our popular supper hour matinees from 5.30 to 7.30 especially put on for patrons who are unable to attend the regular performances. Phone 2052.

The Playhouse

In presenting The Drama Players in Charles Klein's four-act drama "The Lion and the Mouse," at the Playhouse, the drama shows more judgment for it again gives the members of the cast good opportunity to display their talents as dramatic entertainers, as well as demonstrating beyond doubt to the patrons that their combined efforts are really deserving of liberal recognition. The play is intensely interesting, dealing as it does in events and happenings taken from modern political and business life as the average American now knows it and portraying the character of a man who has swayed, and still sways the destinies of certain channels in the biggest business branches of the world. The pretty love story which mingles with the general theme of the story adds much to its general enjoyment and as presented by The Drama Players should give entire satisfaction. Tickets now on sale at box office, telephone 811.

B. F. Keith's Theatre
These two French mademoiselles, the Armoures sisters, are continuing to win friends at the B. F. Keith theatre in their clever Parisian offering, "Chic and graceful and possessed of remarkable ability in several different lines of entertainment, their short stay in America promises to be most successful. The Potts brothers present a straight comedy sketch in "A Double Trouble" written especially for them, and in fact could not be played successfully by any others owing to the resemblance necessary in the two leading characters. The Potts brothers have the resemblance and do not use great pains or legs to help it along in any way. Dave Potts has a line of stories and recitations that take in both the ridiculous and the pathetic and he has an interesting way of telling them. Marshall and Noble sing and dance for twenty happy minutes and the Three Musketeers unravel a line of riddles that simply twinkle. The Zola sisters, who are dancers have a real novelty entertainment and the Rolando brothers, hand balancers round out two solid hours of enjoyment. Phone 25 for seats.

THE PEOPLE OF WIGGINVILLE Are Not Satisfied With the Way the Streets Are Kept at Present Time

A tour of Wigginvillie disclosed the fact that the residents of that part of the city are greatly dissatisfied with the way some of the streets are kept. The biggest protest, however, comes from Billerica street, that portion near Lawrence street which has always been a part of Lowell.

Patrolman James Whitworth is one of those who are protesting and he claims that recently he was forced to spend about $200 on Concord hall which he owns, and which was badly damaged by the water.

Repaired Culvert. A large gang of the city's help is busily engaged on repairing a defective culvert in Billerica street. The job is a big one and although the men have been at work for two days now, it is possible they will not be through before a few more days have elapsed.

The Schools. Everything is running smoothly at the Riverside street school, where Mr. Patrick J. Reynolds was recently appointed principal.

Fishing Club. The South Lowell Fishing club will go on its fifth annual fishing trip Sunday. Those going are Alexander Pelletier, Joseph A. Plante, Germain Pelletier, Alphonse Surprenant, Arthur Brin, Henri Pronovost, Alphonse Nadeau, George Gelineau, Richard Gelineau, Alphonse Rodrigue, Cyprille Marchand and others.

Strange Transaction. A rather curious real estate transaction took place last week in South Lowell, when three houses changed hands; all, however, remaining in the family.

Personal Notes. The first christening to be performed at St. Marie's chapel, South Lowell, took place last Sunday afternoon, when a new born son of Mr. and Mrs. Elisee Marchand was baptized.

Deaths. MURPHY—Mrs. Mary A. Riley, widow of Thomas J. Riley and an esteemed resident of North Billerica, died early this morning at her home, 16 Talbot avenue, North Billerica, aged 56 years.

Deaths. SINGER—James B. Singer, a native of Lowell and for the past 25 years a resident of Malden, died at his home at 155 Haverhill street, Malden, Wednesday night. He was born in Lowell on April 12, 1837, son of James and Eliza Bradford Singer.

Deaths. INGLES—Mrs. Annie L. Ingles, widow of Martin Ingles, died last evening at 10 West Ninth street, after an illness of many years. She is survived by two sons, A. P. Ingles of this city and C. A. Ingles of London, Eng.; two brothers, Wm. Knowlton and Herbert Knowlton of Perryburg, N. Y.; also two grandchildren. The funeral took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock and the body was sent to Perryburg, N. Y., for burial in the A. C. train. Undertaker Geo. M. Eastman in charge.

GOV. WILSON

Gave His Hearty Approval to Formation of the Wilson National Progressive Republican League. COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 20.—Coinciding with the opening of the democratic campaign in Ohio today, Gov. Wilson gave his hearty approval today to the formation in New York of the Wilson National Progressive Republican League. The governor and Rudolph Spreckels, now in New York in charge of the movement, exchanged the following telegrams, made public today by the nominees:

"New York, Sept. 19, 1912. "Gov. Woodrow Wilson, Columbus, O. "I am a hearty supporter of the Wilson National Progressive Republican League here today opened in the Metropolitan building, New York. Our league was founded by progressive republicans who hope to save the progressive movement that was started some years ago in the republican party, but which is being betrayed by the organization of Col. Roosevelt's third term party. Under these conditions you alone deserve the support of true progressives who place principles above partisanship. Our membership is widely distributed but we feel that in voting and working for your election since the candidate of the republican party does not represent the progressive majority in that party and Roosevelt's candidacy is hopeless and only serves to divide our progressive forces. (Signed) "Rudolph Spreckels."

To which Gov. Wilson replied: "Your telegram telling me of the formation of the Wilson national progressive republican league gave me the deepest gratification and encouragement. The action you and your associates are taking seems to me truly patriotic. The progressive forces of the nation ought not to be divided. No more attachment to a party name should now separate men whose purposes and convictions are united for a common object. The formation of the league seems to me one of the most reasonable indications of the temper of the thoughtful men. May I not convey to you my congratulations on your own part in the movement. (Signed) "Woodrow Wilson."

Candidate is Fatigued. COLUMBUS, Ohio, September 20.—Some what fatigued from the hurried campaigning of the last four days, Gov. Wilson took a long sleep today before entering into a busy program that was to open the democratic campaign in Ohio. He arrived at 8 a. m., but slept in his car until 10 o'clock. The governor knocked the bottom out of previous plans and determined upon a 12 hour sleep. After he had spoken in Detroit last night it had been intended to have him speak from his train at 1.20 a. m., at Toledo, but the governor smilingly protested and the special train passed through Toledo during the night.

State Chairman Finley accompanied the governor's party from Detroit and mapped out a succession of speeches and receptions. The day was to bring together Gov. Judson Harmon and the nominee for the first time since the presidential contest began. During the primary campaign Gov. Wilson did not visit Ohio, out of courtesy to Governor Harmon who was a candidate for the nomination.

Gov. Wilson will return to Sea Girt tomorrow, winding up his first big campaign trip. Part of Loot Recovered. CINCINNATI, Sept. 20.—Part of the $72,000 loot robbers got from the Bank of Montreal at New Westminster, B. C., has been recovered by Chicago police, according to an admission by Assistant Chief of Police Schuttler today. How much of the money was found he refused to say, but he intimated the amount would run into the thousands. It was said that the money was in Canadian bills of large denomination. He expressed the belief that the robbers were still hiding in Chicago. It is believed that the loot of the Canadian bank robbery was hidden by two men who came after they had beaten a police lieutenant into unconsciousness when he attempted to arrest them single-handed.

SHOT FIRED

Struck a Pedestrian Who Was Passing in the Street—If Was Found He Was Slightly Injured. NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—Detectives were about to pose a prisoner named McInerney, arrested on suspicion of burglary, for his picture at police headquarters today when the prisoner bolted toward an open window and leaped to the sidewalk, 30 feet below. Detective Shelley fired his revolver at McInerney and jumped through the window after the flying prisoner. Shelley fired more shots and McInerney was dropped with a bullet in his shoulder. After the excitement had subsided it was discovered that a pedestrian had been struck and slightly wounded by one of the shots.

Postoffice Robbed

LEPPING, N. H., Sept. 20.—Postoffice robbers secured $1000 in cash and stamps when they blew the safe in the local office early today. A woman residing near the postoffice heard the explosion and saw three men running away. When the authorities arrived they found the door of the safe blown off and the cash and stamps gone. There was no clue to the burglars.

COTTAGE HOUSE AND ABOUT EIGHTEEN HUNDRED SEVENTY-FIVE SQUARE FEET OF LAND AT NO. 270 LINCOLN STREET.

As I am about to take up my residence in California this winter I have placed this cozy and convenient home in the hands of the auctioneer for absolute sale regardless of any condition of the property on Saturday, Sept. 21st at 3 o'clock. The cottage consists of eleven rooms, bath, pantry, and two cellars; the basement having a summer kitchen, dining-room, store room, small wood cellar and coal cellar. On the second floor, being the street floor, there is a large parlor with a bay window, sitting-room and two chambers. On the next floor there are four large square, airy, and well lighted chambers and bath with open plumbing. The house is in excellent shape inside and out and could be used for two families, or it would make an excellent home for someone with large family. The lot has a good frontage on Lincoln street and also on Poplar street. It has a good yard on Poplar street with a large elm shade tree and the lot contains about 1675 square feet of land all fenced in. If you, then, for someone who would like to locate in this end of the city, this property has many advantages as it is within four minutes' walk of the many industries and between two lines of cars. I certainly think the new grade crossing on Lincoln street is a great addition to this property as well as the other properties in this vicinity. If you will call and look the premises over you will agree with me that it is in excellent shape inside and out. By order of MARGARET WILLIAMS, Terms: $200 to be paid to the auctioneer as soon as struck off.
